Night of Glee as children raise the roof

MUSIC and drama students raised the roof of their Rugeley school as they took to the stage for their first ever performance.

Pupils aged from eight to 11, from John Bamford Primary, Crabtree Way, performed to a packed hall last Thursday (June 16).

The JB Glee Choir, inspired by the hit TV show Glee, formed in February and with the help of teachers, Samantha Langston, Charlotte Holyhead and Kath Bryan, are now looking forward many more performances.

Teaching assistant Rebecca Marshall said: "The staff, children and parents all had a fantastic night and the choir, which boasts so much musical talent, were so excited to finally perform at the school and show everyone what they've worked so hard for."

The pupils performed numbers from Annie and Oliver! as well as modern hits like Rihanna's Umbrella and Take That's Rule the World.

Worthy causes for celebrity golf day

CELEBRITIES will be swinging by a Rugeley golf club next week for a charity tournament.

Former England footballer Frank Worthington tops the bill for the fundraising event on Thursday (June 30), at St Thomas's Priory Golf Club, on the Hawkesyard Estate.

Comedian Steve Wom-ack is also due to attend and visitors have the chance to enjoy a three-course meal and celebrity cabaret show.

Supporting the event is The Horns Inn, based in Slitting Mill and run by Pete and Fran Hill.

"Hopefully we will have a good turnout that will raise a considerable sum for the two charities, who will in turn give something back to local people," said Pete.

"Last year it was a great success so we're advising people to reserve their teams, which are limited to 24 players, to make sure they don't miss out."

Entry to the golf day is £360 per team of three and includes a breakfast roll on arrival, 18 holes of golf with a celebrity and one complementary buggy per team, three course evening meal and the celebrity show.

Designed

The whole day tees off at noon and extra tickets to the celebrity cabaret evening costs £30 per person. To book a golf team contact Pete on 01889 586000.

Meanwhile, a "shotgun" tournament was held to celebrate 100 years since Beau Desert Golf Club at Hazel Slade was designed. Herbert Fowler designed courses all over the country and representatives from many of them took part in Thursday's tournament (June 16).

Club president John Taylor, captain Peter Allen, and English Golf Union chairman Nigel Evans and director Terry Leece teed off for the 18-hole pairs contest.

A gala ball will be held on September 17, the day in 1911 that the club was formed.

A course was designed by Fowler for the Marquis of Anglesey and in 1921 he leased it to golfers who renamed themselves Beau Desert Golf Club.

INSURANCE BLOW IN POTHOLES ROW

AN INSURANCE company has refused to compensate a driver for damage done to her car by gaping potholes on a Burntwood street.

Sue Hollyhead and husband Andy have been left fuming by the decision, with Zurich Municipal – acting on behalf of Staffordshire County Council – claiming the local authority could not be held negligent.

The Chronicle reported back in February how Andy had counted 24 potholes within a 120-yard stretch of Hunslet Road. They had accumulated during bad winters in 2010 and 2011.

One of the potholes had caused suspension damage worth £90 on Sue's Fiat Multipla car and the couple, who live in nearby Boulton Close, filed a claim with the council.

But in a letter last week Zurich said the council was not responsible for the damage caused. It said it had fixed the pothole after Sue's claim had been registered, but only after the authority itself had noted the problem.

Andy said the reasoning behind the claim being rejected made his blood boil.

"I couldn't believe what they had said – for me, it's just not an excuse," Andy said. "I assume the statement means that because they repaired the hole after my wife's suspension was destroyed it is not the highways' fault.

"They think that just by saying that they're not negligent and basically they're covering their own backs.

"If I haven't got a case then nobody has.

"I know it's only £90 but it's the principle of the thing."

Some of the potholes, including the one which caused the damage to Sue's car, were repaired two weeks after The Chronicle first reported the incident.

But many still remain and Andy said the road – inspected for pothole damage once a year by the council - was still in desperate need of repairs.

"What adds insult to injury is the road is now in a worse state than ever," he added.

"Many of the potholes still there can do damage, but if your car hits one I wouldn't bother filing a claim with the council."

Zurich's letter said that the question of fault would be determined by whether or not the local authority had a reasonable system of inspection and repair.

Although the potholes were not noted in the last yearly inspection on Hunslet Road, they were spotted while staff attended a separate inspection.

Negligence

"Unfortunately, as your incident occurred between the date the repair order was raised and the date the repairs were completed, we cannot see how our customer can be held negligent," the letter reads.

"We feel that they had in place and adhered to a reasonable system of inspection and repair," the letter adds.

"In view of this, whilst we are naturally sympathetic, we cannot see how any negligence will attach to our customer and as such, liability is denied."

Staffordshire County Council was unavailable for comment at the time of going to press.

Day out for the elderly

AN annual trip for elderly Rugeley residents has been given the backing of local groups.

Rugeley senior citizens committee has been working hard to fund this year's trip to Stourport.

Brereton & Ravenhill parish council, Rugeley Power Station, Rugeley Town Council and the Staffordshire Local Community Funding have all supported the August 1 excursion.

Anyone aged 68 and over living in Rugeley or Brereton, who would like to go on the trip, can obtain tickets from 10am until noon from the Rose Theatre, on June 28 and 30 and July 5 and 7.

Tickets are £6, or £7 for adult carers who may be younger than 68.

Photographer's work on view

AN AWARD-winning photographer has had two of his pictures selected for a national exhibition.

Allan Williamson, a freelance photographer from Brereton, is featured in the National Council for the Training of Journalists' 60th anniversary photography exhibition at the offices of The Guardian in London.

The exhibition highlights the outstanding work of NCTJ-trained photographers and was officially opened at a champagne reception.

Mr Williamson said: "I am delighted to have had two of my pictures chosen for this prestigious exhibition celebrating the NCTJ's 60th anniversary."

He studied on the NCTJ press photography course at Wednesbury in 1972-73 and then completed his NCTJ Proficiency Certificate at the Lichfield Mercury, where he worked for more than 36 years and for Central Independent Newspapers as their Group Chief Photographer, winning nearly 40 national and regional awards.

Dream

Mr Williamson was also given the rare honour of being made a Freeman of the City of Lichfield earlier this year in recognition of his outstanding photography.

One of the photographs selected was a rainbow over Lichfield Cathedral. Mr Williamson said: "It took me 35 years to capture this photograph – it had long been my dream to photograph a full rainbow over Lichfield Cathedral and it became my photographic Everest.

"I used to watch the skies for good potential 'rainbow' weather and 'chased' rainbows on numerous occasions, but that perfect shot kept eluding me."

The other selected picture, from the foot and mouth outbreak, shows a dead cow being lifted onto the pyre at a Chase Terrace farm early in the morning.

The exhibition runs until July 15.

Events for the school holiday

CANNOCK Chase Council has announced a programme of activities to keep youngsters entertained during the long summer holidays.

The Chase It! Summer holiday brochure will be available from next Monday (June 27) featuring fun days out, sporting activities, arts and crafts and special events.

Days out this year include Waterworld, Drayton Manor Theme Park, Shugborough, a London theatre trip, Alton Towers, ten-pin bowling, Tamworth Snowdome and West Midlands Safari Park.

Play rangers will be out and about across the district and will get the break off to a start with a National Family Play Day at the Museum of Cannock Chase on Sunday, July 31.

The museum will be holding art and craft workshops and there will be plenty of sporting activities at Rugeley and Chase Leisure Centres.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport portfolio holder, said: "We've really laid on a fantastic programme of activities this year."

The brochure will be available at council offices, libraries, leisure centres and other public places across the District. View online at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/chaseit

Charge on road death

A CANNOCK woman aged 26 has been charged with causing death by careless driving. She will appear before Cannock magistrates' on June 28.

It follows the death in John Street, Wimblebury of 72-year-old Kathleen Radford in February.

Big turnout set for community stalwart's funeral

Fundraising group folds after founder dies at 87

THE funeral of a Penkridge fundraising champion takes place tomorrow (Friday).

Win Laffan was the founder of the Penkridge Goodies, a group which helped to raise more than £300,000 for charity.

Her death has now marked the end of the long-standing group.

Mrs Laffan who set up the Goodies more than 30 years ago, died on June 6, after suffering a heart attack at the age of 87.

"The three remaining members have since announced the group will cease because "it wouldn't be right to carry on without her."

Mrs Laffan, of Wulfric Close, moved to Penkridge in the 1960s, when her husband Richard joined the village police force. It was here she met Pet Hughes and started work at Mrs Hughes' uncle's newsagents where she stayed for 19 years.

Parish council chairman Mrs Hughes, an original member of Penkridge Goodies, said: "We are expecting a big turnout at the funeral because she was such a popular member of the village.

"She never had any children but the Penkridge Goodies became her baby and her life; she completely lived and breathed every second of it. She loved surprising people. Sadly the group has died with Win we could never carry on living her dream without her.

"She was so proud of everything we achieved and I think she would agree it was the right time to end. We have worked so hard over the years but it has been a pleasure."

The Burton-born fundraiser, who found walking a struggle after two knee operations, was also a member of the Women's Institute, where the Penkridge Goodies first began in 1975.

She was awarded an MBE in 1995 in the Queen's New Year's Honours list, the same year that she and her husband, who died in 2003, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

The group helped numerous organisations and its donations led to the purchase medical equipment, uniforms and even an ambulance.

Win Laffan

Mrs Laffan had a bench dedicated to her in the Haling Dene Centre, in Cannock Road to mark her 80th birthday.

The funeral will take place at St Michael and All Angels Church, Penkridge, at 2.30pm followed by a gathering at Hatherton Country Hotel, in Pinfold Lane

All donations will go to the British Heart Foundation's My Heart appeal, based in Cannock.

Life through a lens at museum

VISITORS had the chance to see life through a lens at a summer solstice celebration event at the Museum of Cannock Chase.

The museum in Valley Road, Hednesford, hosted a display of modern and vintage telescopes and other observation instruments.

Sunday's event (June 19) was organised by Cannock Civic Observatories – based at Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School – a project formally opened last year by Dr Guy Consolmagno, astronomer and keeper of meteorites at the Vatican Observatory.

Brother Consolmagno, a former NASA scientist, was famously on the commission that recommended that Pluto no longer be called a planet.

The observatory site consists of two domes and two ancillary facilities, namely the CA Loxton Memorial Transit House – named after Charles Adshead Loxton who had an observatory in Cannock in the late 19th Century – and the Phyllis Armitage Memorial Telescope House.

The equipment at the facility ranges from the larger Newtonians to smaller high-quality refractors.

The observatory contains the largest collection of telescopes in the Midlands.

It will be open to the school and community with courses running through the year.

AGM at Cruse to mark birthday

A STAFFORDSHIRE group is marking its 30th birthday with an annual general meeting on Thursday, July 7.

The Lichfield and Cannock branch of Cruse Bereavement Care formed in 1981 and is run entirely by volunteers.

Nationally the charity received a boost recently when the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge named it as one of their good causes for wedding guests to donate to.

The group's AGM is being held at St Mary's Centre, Breadmarket Street, at 7.30pm and will be addressed by guest speaker Prof Hugh Burkhardt, from the University of Nottingham.

Branch chair Sue Williams said: "Cruse Bereavement Care's services are free and the organisation is self funding with all its volunteers giving their time freely.

"If anyone is interested in finding out more, we would love to hear from them."

For more information email lichfield@cruse.org.uk or call 01543 433479.

A portrait in stamps

ARTIST Pete Mason, who has created postage stamp portraits of well-known figures, will address members of Cheslyn Hay & District Local History Society next week.

The group's monthly meeting takes place on Thursday, June 30, from 7.30pm at the Salem in High Street.

Mr Mason, of Hednesford, will give a entitled A Portrait in Stamps.

Admission is £1, including refreshments.

Carole's Highland art display

CHASE Terrace artist Carole Baker is exhibiting her work at the Lichfield Guildhall this weekend – for the second time this year.

The Highland Light summer exhibition is being held tomorrow (Friday 24) and Saturday (25) from 10am to 5pm at the Corridor Gallery. It will feature many different and new, never-before-seen pieces.

The touring exhibition will move later in the year to Nottingham, Sheffield and the Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, of which Carole is a member. Carole said: "The whole collection consists of around 120 paintings of which half have already sold. I have been keen to ensure each exhibition is very different, giving people something new to see each time.

"The response I have received so far has been outstanding."

Fellow artist Bob Russon will again show his unique work and both artists will be available to discuss their work and talk about their inspiration. For more, visit www.carolebaker.com or call 01543 676895.

Charity handed funding booster

AN educational charity based in Rugeley is to receive a cash boost of £160,000.

Be Together Limited is an education business link consortium which aims to improve the job skills of local youngsters.

The money has been awarded from the Government's Big Society Transition Fund. It will be used to help unemployed young people across the county.

The group, based in St Joseph's Court, in Lichfield Street, acts as a contract management body for funding received from local authorities and other external agencies before distributing it to partner organisations.

Contracts

The money will fund the changes that charities need to make as they move from public to private sector contracts.

The fund helps charities, voluntary groups and social enterprises arrange work experience.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley said: "It's great to hear that Be Together which does important work improving the skills of young people will receive funding."

Parking charges for disabled to be scrapped

Mary Creagh MP with Margaret Barton and Councillor George Adamson

THE new Labour cabinet on Cannock Chase Council is set to scrap plans to charge for disabled parking.

The measure had been planned by the previous Lib Dem administration.

Council leader Councillor George Adamson met Labour MP and shadow cabinet member for environment, food and rural affairs Mary Creagh to discuss the steps which the new Labour council was taking.

Blue badge holder Margaret Barton, aged 75, from Heath Hayes also met the MP. She said the idea to start charging for use of the district's car parks was a 'terrible idea'.

Councillor Adamson said it would have cost £129,000 to implement the policy because of the need to adapt ticket machines – as many disabled people could not get to the height needed to pay for a ticket.

"It was a scandal that the Liberal Democrats wanted to unfairly charge the disabled for parking in council car parks," he said. "It would have been a false economy. We believe it would have led to more people parking on double yellow lines and clogging up side streets."

The council's Cabinet was meeting today (Thursday) to approve the scrapping of the scheme.

Miss Creagh, MP for Wakefield, said: "I fully support what Labour is doing in Cannock. It was important that when we took control, we showed people that we mean business and keep our promises.

"I am delighted George and his colleagues have taken an early decision to drop a policy which would have penalised disabled people," she added.

As part of a pilot scheme, launched in March, cancer patients in Cannock Chase get free parking. Patients are issued with temporary blue badges which can be used in council-owned car parks in Cannock, Rugeley and Stafford. The three-month scheme, operated by Stafford Hospital, has just been extended by popular demand.

Fire service's Olive Branch is welcomed

A CANNOCK woman who lost her neighbour in a fatal house blaze has welcomed free safety awareness training being provided by Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service.

The service is offering its Olive Branch training to all carers who work with elderly or vulnerable people and includes identifying and dealing with fire hazards in the home.

The scheme has received the support of Cynthia Tallent, a neighbour of Charles Parmenter, aged 90, who died in a fire at his home in Heath Street, Hednesford, in December. Mrs Tallent voluntarily provided Mr Parmenter with quality daily care and support for over seven years.

She said: "Voluntary carers often don't get much support so I welcome this free training – had I still been caring for Mr Parmenter it's something I would certainly have gone on.

"I'd encourage anyone who cares for someone to go on the training as it will give them that extra piece of mind that the person they look after is as safe as possible from fire."

Bookings are now being taken for a course taking place at Cannock Community Fire Station, in Hednesford Road, from 1-2.30pm on Monday July 11.

Dave Steele, risk reduction manager at the fire service, said: "Carers are in people's homes on a daily basis and so they are in an ideal position to identify those who are vulnerable and may be at risk from fire.

Prevention

"Over half of the people who died in fires last year were receiving some kind of voluntary care, which highlights the importance of giving carers fire safety awareness training."

The Olive Branch initiative was launched in July 2007 following the death of an elderly lady, Olive Simcock, in a fire in her home in South Staffordshire November 2006.

Olive's lifestyle put her at high risk from fire and although she was known to social care and health she was not known to the fire and rescue service, so no prevention measures were put in place.

For more about Olive Branch training or to book onto a course call 01785 898559 or email olivebranch@staffordshirefire.gov.uk

Worries raised over school academy bid

COUNCILLORS in Hednesford have raised fears about the future of a secondary school in the town after it took a step closer to becoming a £10 million academy.

Staffordshire County Council has been consulting over proposals to turn Blake Valley Technology College into an academy.

A six-week consultation period has ended, at a meeting last Wednesday (June 15), the council's cabinet voted to approve the plans.

However, local councillors have voiced their fears for the school.

Hednesford Green Heath councillor Bob Todd said: "What would happen if the money ran out?"

Councillor Todd added he thought a variation in pay in the private and public sector could also cause unrest between teachers.

Hednesford south councillor Gordon Ball said he was a 'bit wary' about the idea. He said: "I can't see what the pupils are going to gain from it."

Cannock Chase Council leader Councillor George Adamson, ward member for Hednesford Green Heath, said he thought the decision had been 'rushed through.

Rob Moss, a Midlands officer for the National Union of Teachers, says academies will mean schools are less accountable and likely to harm educational standards.

Sponsored

"There's not much evidence, if any, that academies approve the achievement of schools," he said.

The new academy would be sponsored by Staffordshire University from September, if the plans are approved by the Education Secretary Michael Gove.

Maria Scrivens, for Staffordshire University, said: "We welcome the decision of the county council which paves the way for us to proceed with our plans to open a new academy."

Hats off to competition winners

Sammy Thorpe (aged eight) and Springhill Primary hat competition winners

CHILDREN in Burntwood held a week dedicated to books whichs culminated in a hat making contest.

The youngsters from Springhill Primary School, in Mossbank Avenue, had a competition to see who could make the best hat in tribute to their favourite books.

A winner was chosen from each year, ranging from the nursery group to year six pupils.

Staff were so impressed with all the efforts that certificates were given to all of the pupils. Headteacher Bob Cadman said it was tough to pick a winner.

He said: "The standard was so high, it was almost impossible."

The winners from each year were presented with certificates and given book tokens to spend on their favourite titles.

Many of the hats were influenced by classic children's novels, including the Harry Potter series, the CS Lewis's Chronicles of Narnia and Roald Dahl favourites.

Homes plan at dog track

PLANS to build 130 homes on the site of Norton Canes former dog track were being discussed this week.

The plans were being earmarked for approval at a meeting of Cannock Chase Council's planning committee yesterday (Wednesday).

Richborough Estates is behind the proposals for the 6.8-acre site near Red Lion Lane.

Land adjoining the stadium, including some in council ownership, will form part of the scheme.

Residents living near the site have spoken out against the plans for Green Belt land.

And education chiefs say there will be more demand for school places.

Renault in visit to store

A CANNOCK car dealership is hosting a mobility awareness event at a supermarket in the town.

Renault Cannock is holding the awareness day at Morrisons, in Mill Street, tomorrow (Friday) to promote Motability, a car scheme for disabled people.

The initiative offers those receiving the higher rate mobility component of the Disability Living Allowance (DLA) or War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement (WPMS) a new Renault every three years.

Renault Cannock will showcase the new Renault Scenic Dynamique TomTom from 9am.

Motability specialist Ian Hudson-Innes will advise visitors on how cars ordered through the scheme can be adapted to an individual's requirements. For more details call 01543 511300.

Housing scheme rejected

A SCHEME to build a multi-million pound homes development in Cheslyn Hay has been turned down.

Councillors on South Staffs District Council's said the scheme would not fulfil the housing needs of the village.

Morris Homes had hoped to build 32 mainly three and four-bedroom properties on land in New Horse Road.

Ten would have been affordable homes, but councillors ruled this was too low.

Branching out at library

YOUNGSTERS were shown how to make a family tree at Cannock Library.

The event for children aged six to12, was held at the library in Manor Avenue to help encourage an interest in family history. Senior library assistant Annette Beamand said about a dozen youngsters had joined in the craft activity.

The library is planning a series of summer activities for children. For details call 01543 510365.

Old stars line up at raceway

A GALAXY of stars from Hednesford Hills Raceway's past will get back on the track this weekend as the raceway stages its annual Veterans meeting.

A large field of Unlimited Bangers is already booked in to race on Sunday (June 26) with famous names such as Ken Gibbs, Tony Usher and Richard Atkins all set to compete.

A big grid of Mk1 escorts, anglias and minis is also promised in the Classic Hot Rods, with several stars of Hednesford's past also appearing in these high-speed non-contact racers to contest the Midland Championship.

Hednesford is well known as the birthplace of UK Hot Rod racing, and it is only fitting that great names such as Dave Fry, Roger Wright and Northern Ireland's Norman Woolsey are in attendance to celebrate it.

The V8 rumble of the BriSCA Heritage F1 Stock Cars will be heard once again, with a mixture of original machines from the past and "replicars" on show including the UK's only six-wheeled stock car as driven by John Stirk.

Gates open at around 10am, with action getting under way at 1pm.

Admission is £12 for adults, £10 for concessions and £6 for children, with family tickets, admitting two adults and up to three children for £35.

Trackside parking is available for £6 per car on a first come, first served basis. For more information, call promoters Incarace on 0121 357 7328, or visit www.incarace.co.uk

Heroine in car incident

A WOMAN sustained head injuries when she apparently pushed a pregnant teenager out of the way of a car as it mounted the pavement.

Police say the woman was hit by the Mercedes coupe after it mounted the pavement in High Street, Cheslyn Hay, after a collision with a Renault Megane just after 3.30pm on Monday (June 20).

A witness, who did not wish to be named, said the car was heading towards the pregnant girl when the older woman push her away.

The 53-year-old woman was flown by air ambulance to Birmingham's Queen Elizabeth Hospital but her condition was not thought to be life threatening. The 16-year-old girl was taken to Walsall Manor Hospital.

A Birmingham man, aged 27, was arrested for aggravated vehicle taking and released on bail.

Meeting date for residents

ETCHING HILL residents are invited to a community meeting next Thursday, June 30.

The informal meeting follows a recent clean-up, which was said by organisers to be a big success.

It will take place in the hall at the Church of the Holy Spirit at 8pm.

Anyone interesting in volunteering or passing comment is welcome.

Flying the flag in support for Armed Forces

L to r: James Hawley, Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire; Maurice Walton, treasurer of the Cannock Royal Engineers Association and Councillor John Beddows, chairman of Cannock Chase Council

A FLAG-raising ceremony was held at Cannock Chase Council's Civic Centre in a show of support for the Armed Forces.

The ceremony on Monday (June 20), was one of a number taking part across the UK from 10.30am, the onset of a week of activities that lead up to Armed Forces Day on Saturday (June 25).

Armed Forces Day is an opportunity for the nation to show its support for the men and women who make up the Armed Forces community.

The specially designed flag, based on the Union flag, was raised outside the Civic Centre in Beecroft Road.

The ceremony was attended by the Hednesford and Tamworth branches of the Staffordshire Regiment's Regimental Association, the Cannock branch of the Royal Engineers Association, the Cannock Chase Royal Air Force Association, the Walsall and District branch of the Normandy Veterans' Association, the Royal British Legion (Hednesford and Norton Canes branches) and the Royal British Legion (Hednesford Women's Section).

The Lord Lieutenant of Staffordshire, James Hawley, was also in attendance.

The flag was raised by Maurice Walton, treasurer of the Cannock Royal Engineers Association.

He said: "I was honoured to raise the flag as Armed Forces Day is a very important occasion. It brings home to the local community the fortitude of our Armed Forces and the risks our servicemen and women make for us all."

Cannock Chase Council chairman Councillor John Beddows said: "We owe our Armed Forces such a debt of gratitude for the work they do on our behalf. Our debt to the Armed Forces, past and present, is something this country will never be able to repay."

Authority seeking district jobs boost

COUNCILLORS are looking to bring more jobs to the district by teaming up with local businesses.

Economic growth is one of the key priorities for the Labour group that recently took control of the authority.

The council will work through local enterprise partnerships to secure support for new initiatives which will help find investment for infrastructure, business support, training and marketing over the next three years.

The authority will work with companies employing more than 50 people to ensure at least half of those employed are district residents. It will join forces with Cannock Chase Chamber of Commerce and other partners to target the top 200 businesses in the local economy to encourage new employment.

The council will also continue to work with development partners to make starts on regeneration schemes in Cannock and Rugeley town centres.

Health, the environment and value-for-money services will also be at the heart of the council's corporate plan through to 2014 .

Corporate improvement leader Councillor Dennis Dixon, said: "We are committed to continuous improvement and are determined to continue to listen to residents and to reflect the needs and aspirations of the district's businesses and communities."

The plan and priority delivery plans are available to read at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk

Residents are invited to share their thoughts on the plan and priorities by e-mailing policy@cannockchasedc.gov.uk or calling the policy team on 01543 462621.

Erasure headline

AWARD winning 80s duo Erasure will headline the first night of live music at Cannock Chase Forest tomorrow (Friday) – despite Andy Bell's success in ITV's Popstar to Operastar.

Andy has reached the fourth stage of the competition which airs live every Sunday night, but the Forestry Commission has confirmed he will definitely perform on the duo's UK Total Pop Forest tour.

They will be supported by Sophie Ellis-Bextor on the first of the two live forest gigs.

Simple Minds will follow on Saturday night, supported by Starsailor frontman James Walsh.

Norton Canes Primary School has won a science Quality Mark and pictured getting a pat on the back from 'Boris' is Molly Simmonds (aged 11)

School handed science award

YOUNGSTERS at a Norton Canes school are celebrating after winning a science award.

Norton Canes Primary, in School Road, has been handed a Primary Science Quality Mark (PSQM) award to celebrate a commitment to the subject.

Charlotte Prestwood, a science leader at the school said: "We have been recognised in our achievements in developing science teaching and learning, with our school achieving bronze award.

"The awards ceremony took place on Wednesday, June 8 at the Think Tank, in Birmingham."

She added: "PSQM is a joint project, led by the Association for Science Education, the network of Science Learning Centres and Barnet Local Authority.

"It is supported by the Wellcome Trust.

"The scheme enables schools to work together to share good practice and is supported by professional development led by local experts."

Parking fees are debated

COUNCIL staff and members are set to be charged for parking at work to save £38,000 a year – despite protests from unions.

The move, which would cost Cannock Chase Council employees £130 a year, was due to have started on April 1 but an outcry from union members forced the authority to look again at the policy even though it is not in workers' contracts.

Today (Thursday), the cabinet was set to vote on whether to introduce the charges on August 1 or defer them until next April. By bringing in a fee across the board on August 1, a saving of £25,300 would be made.

However, three other options are also before the committee: Deferring charging councillors until next April but bringing in fees for employees in August, saving £24,000, delaying the charges for staff until next April but bringing them in for councillors in August, saving just £1,300, or deferring the whole scheme until April with no saving.

The budget for 2011-2012 was approved in April. New cuts would have to be found to compensate for the loss of revenue.

A report to the cabinet points out that free car parking is not part of employees' formal contracts.

Last month union Unison lodged a formal complaint on the basis that a full and meaningful consultation had not taken place.

In a further meeting, Unison requested that the Labour administration consider dropping the scheme.

New cabinet time change

THE times of Cannock Chase Council's new cabinet meetings have changed.

The new controlling Labour group has decided that from its first cabinet meeting today (Thursday), the start time will be 5.45pm to enable more members of the public to attend.

Council leader Councillor George Adamson said: "Cabinet meetings are held in public, and residents are more than welcome to attend. We've decided to move the time of cabinet meetings so more people are able to come to the meetings."

The cabinet will be discussing car parking arrangements for Blue Badge holders, the grass cutting scheme for vulnerable tenants, a request for funding from Chase Advice Centre and revenue support for the Chase Line rail service.

Likely support for HS2 rail link

CANNOCK Chase Council is set to back the controversial high speed rail network linking London to the Midlands – despite the £32bn scheme facing opposition from Lichfield District and Staffordshire County Councils.

Council chiefs will discuss the HS2 at a cabinet meeting today (Thursday) with the authority's principal planning officer, John Morgan, recommending support. In a report, he says the HS2 is likely to benefit the region.

Mercy mission cash is raised

BUSINESS bosses in Cannock have raised £250 towards an African mercy mission for students from Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay.

The Link 4 Life project was launched last year by local churches to bring together schools, parents and the community, to support charity work in southern Africa.

On July 7, for the second year running, a group of students and parents from the area will travel to Africa for a two-week visit, to help in projects for needy communities.

Some may also help Mercy Air, which flies people, goods and materials around the continent.

Rev Richard Westwood, minister of St Andrews Church, in Landywood, said: "This trip will give the students a valuable life lesson in helping to make a real difference for poor communities in southern Africa."

Honour for pub

A PENKRIDGE pub has been honoured with a top award.

The Swan at Whiston will be presented with the pub of the year award by the Heart of Staffordshire Campaign for Real Ale. The pub also scooped the branch's first cider pub of the year award.

Pub representatives will receive the awards at the Stafford Beer Festival, which takes place from July 28-30 at Blessed William Howard Catholic High School.

Name change

A CANNOCK pub is to change its name. Stones in Market Place will become Missoula, offering music, food and cocktails.

Aidan Burley MP and fiancee Helen

Helen: 'I do' to MP's question

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley popped the parliamentary question when he proposed to his long-term girlfriend.

Mr Burley went down on bended knee on the roof of the Palace of Westminster. It was girlfriend Helen Boyle's 32nd birthday.

The Conservative MP, also 32, had hidden a bottle of champagne and two glasses amid the neo-gothic spires before popping the question.

The couple had been celebrating the TV fashion presenter's birthday at the House of Commons.

After being wined and dined, Miss Boyle followed Mr Burley up onto the roof to scale the dizzy heights of Westminster to take in the capital's magnificent skyline – unaware of the surprise to come.

As Miss Boyle said "yes", Big Ben chimed 6.45pm.

Mr Burley said afterwards: "It was such a special moment for us both. Being so high up gave us wonderful views over a bustling Westminster and yet it was so quiet and serene.

"The weather was just beautiful, and having gone down on one knee, the best part of all happened – she said yes."

The couple plan to get married next year in the bride's picturesque home village in Herefordshire. Miss Boyle has appeared as a fashion stylist on ITV's This Morning and Sky's Angela and Friends, and was a producer on Channel 4's Gok's Fashion Fix.

Mr Burley was last month ranked among the dishiest parliamentarians.

The New Zealand-born MP was educated in Birmingham and at Oxford University. He was elected last May.

He is a member of the Home Affairs Select Committee and in January was appointed Parliamentary Private Secretary to Transport Secretary Philip Hammond.

Extra land is a boost to college

SOUTH Staffordshire College has acquired 75 additional acres of land on a 10-year lease at the Rodbaston Campus in Penkridge.

College bosses say the additional land enables the college to produce an additional 50 acres of cereals.

The land is situated to the north of the existing property at the college's Rodbaston Campus, from which the grain and straw will be grown and sold.

This, says the college, will make the site more self-sufficient, improve profitability and increase opportunities for student study.

The new land will mean an increase in the amount of haylage made to feed 80 horses kept at the equine centre and also to boost the number of ewes kept from 200 to around 250.

At present, the college is home to the ewes and lambs, along with 35 suckler cows and their calves as well as a further 24 18-month-old growing cattle.

Commitment

The animals are cared for by agricultural students as part of their course work.

Chief executive principal Graham Morley, said: "The acquisition of a significant amount of land demonstrates our continued commitment to land-based operations at South Staffordshire College.

"It enables an expansion of agricultural enterprises which will allow even more opportunities for all students at the college".

South Staffordshire College's land and construction based courses are located on its Rodbaston Campus, with more than 445 acres of rural Staffordshire and almost 1,900 students on further and higher education courses.

The campus provides facilities for agriculture students, with a working farm where students have a say in some of the commercial decisions.

Knifeman takes cash after guard ambushed

DETECTIVES are hunting raiders who struck as a security van was making a cash delivery to a bank in Penkridge.

A guard taking cash to Barclays in Clay Street was threatened by a masked man with a knife, just before noon on Friday (June 17).

It is understood that around £25,000 was stolen from the Group 4 Securicor van. A cash box was also left behind in Crown Bridge, which was taped off by forensic officers.

The car used in the raid and later found abandoned

Police at the scene of the raid at Barclays Bank

Det Sgt Dan Ison of Staffordshire Police said he believed the thief had an accomplice who was driving a maroon L-registered Vauxhall Cavalier. The car has now been recovered by police. It had been abandoned later the same day in nearby Grange Road.

The masked offender is described as white, 5ft 10in to 6ft, and stocky. His clothing included a black ski mask and black gloves. The second man, who was driving the vehicle, was described as white with a stocky build.

After speaking to the security guard, who was shaken but not injured, police spent the day carrying out inquiries at the scene, including speaking to witnesses, visiting local businesses and gathering CCTV footage.

Police particularly wish to speak to people who were in the bank, or close by, who had left the scene prior to officers' arrival.

Tracksuit

And, following an examination of the CCTV footage, officers are keen to speak to two young men seen on Market Street, having come from the direction of The Boat pub, who may have witnessed the incident. They were both white and aged in their early 20s.

The first man was wearing grey jogging bottoms, a white T-shirt, a blue tracksuit top and a grey hat. The second was wearing a black cotton-style jacket, blue jeans and white trainers. He had short, dark hair.

Witnesses or anyone with information is asked to contact Staffordshire Police on 0300 123 44 55 quoting incident number 273 of June 17 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Plea to play badminton

PEOPLE looking for a fun way to get fit and active are being invited to try new badminton sessions at Chase Leisure Centre.

The pay and play sessions, run in conjunction with South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust, are on Wednesdays from 9pm until 10pm at the Stafford Road venue and cost £2.

The badminton sessions are run by a qualified instructor who will help people with the basics and then tailor the game to the individuals' need. All the equipment is provided, people just need a pair of trainers.

Mark Sellwood from Badminton England said: "Our social badminton sessions are suitable for all beginners and social players." Call 07825 981924 or just turn up and play.

Scout troop quintet win Gold award

FIVE members of First Cheslyn Hay Scout Troop have received their Chief Scout's Gold Award.

The quintet are: Luke Golby, Jack Betts, Nathan Taylor, Jack Powell and Morgan Garrington.

Each of the five had to complete a series of challenges between the ages of 11 and 14 to achieve the award. The challenges included camping, abseiling, map reading and first aid.

As part of their fitness challenge, which includes health and well-being, the group started an allotment and have successfully grown fruit and vegetables over the past three years .

Next year, the allotment will be opened to the public on the annual Cheslyn Hay Open Gardens Day.

The Scouts have also secured funding for a greenhouse that they will erect in September.

In addition, they hope to receive funding for solar panels to be fitted to the village headquarters roof to generate electricity. The surplus will be sold to the National Grid.

Temporary closure of leisure centre

COUNCIL chiefs have announced the temporary closure of Chase Leisure Centre next Monday, June 27.

The Stafford Road venue will close to allow the delivery and installation of steel beams for the centre's new roof. It will reopen to the public at 5.30pm on Tuesday,

The golf course will remain open throughout both days.

The work is part of an extensive modernisation and refurbishment of the leisure centre that began in April.

Contractor GF Tomlinson's Ltd is delivering the scheme, which includes a 25m competition pool with boom and moveable floor, 150-station fitness suite and dedicated changing facilities, 200-seat spectator gallery; a modern changing village, a dance studio and a new look from the outside with a new curved roof.

The main reception entrance is now closed and two separate temporary entrances for users of the leisure centre and golf course have been opened at the rear of the building.

Some disabled car parking spaces have been provided close to these entrances. Contractors are currently working on removing internal structures and are working on the changing rooms and old reception area.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, Culture and Sport Portfolio Holder, said: "In the interests of customer safety it is necessary to close the centre briefly on Monday and Tuesday to enable these major structural works to be carried out."

Aiming for a Walking Bus record

AROUND 60 children at a Hednesford school took part in a world record walking bus attempt.

Pupils at West Hill Primary, in High Mount Street, joined around 100,000 children across the country who were marching for road safety from their school gates in the annual Giant Walking Bus.

The event was held as part of a Kids Say Slow Down campaign, which was organised by road safety charity BRAKE.

Lynn Evans, of Station Road, who has children at the school and organised the day, said: "It was great, we have been trying to get a walking bus at the school but have

The UK has one of the worst death rates in Europe of children killed on foot.

Debate over health centre

FRESH plans for a multi-million pound health centre in Cannock town centre were set to be given the green light this week.

District Council planning officers recommended the plans for approval ahead of a meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

New designs have been unveiled for the facility, earmarked for the former Hi-Q Tyres site in Mill Street which will be bulldozed as part of the proposal for the three-storey complex.

Speech

Three empty terraced houses next to the site will also be demolished to make way for the project which is aiming to handle 10,000 patients.

It will house two GP suites for the Red Lion Surgery and the Stafford Road Practice, community services including speech and language therapy, podiatry, respiratory rehabilitation and audiology facilities.

Residents were given a say over the proposed designs after South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust (PCT), which is funding the centre, held a public consultation exercise.

Paramedic cleared over death of driver

JURORS have cleared a Burntwood paramedic over the death of a 60-year-old woman as he sped to a 999 call.

The court had heard that Kevin Webster, of Burntwood, was travelling at speeds of up to 75mph as he rushed to reach a five-year-old boy who had swallowed a coin. Wendy Williams' car was hit by his rapid response vehicle as she pulled out of a junction in Lichfield.

Members of the victim's grieving family have now called for more controls over the speed of ambulances.

Webster, aged 33, of Selwyn Road, was cleared of causing death by careless driving at Stafford crown court. The trial heard he travelled the eight miles to reach the young patient at speeds of up to 75mph.

Mrs Williams pulled out from a side junction into the path of the ambulance in Tamworth Road. Webster braked but his Vauxhall estate, which had its blue lights and siren activated, could not avoid her, the court heard.

Exempt

The prosecution claimed that although Mrs Williams was partially to blame, Webster was also at fault.

He was exempt from the 40mph speed limit because he was on a 999 call, but he was not exempt from the requirement in law to drive with due care, it was alleged.

The jury unanimously acquitted Webster who said the accident, in December 2009, was not his fault as he had slowed down approaching the junction. There was nothing he could do to avoid hitting the Ford Ka.

After the verdict, Mrs Williams's husband Terry said: "We appreciate the ambulance service does a good job, often under great stress, but this should never result in taking life.

"We have been shocked at the lack of consistency between the emergency services in their guidelines for high speed first response vehicle drivers.

"Police in Staffordshire are restricted to a 20mph limit above the local speed limit in responding to emergencies, but the ambulance service has no set limit."

Old Fashioned Values Pay Dividends For Cloudy2Clear

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that his approach is the key. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Some people may call the way I do things a little old-fashioned but it's amazing how a simple mix of manners, punctuality and personal service increases your business. I'm constantly taken aback by customers who are shocked that we turn up when we say we will, do the job that is required and clean up after ourselves. I'm afraid it indicates to me that there are many companies who don't and that's just not fair to the customer.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Wolverhampton, Dudley, Cannock, Bridgnorth & Stourbridge areas and Brian is finding that his ethos is proving to be a major factor in his success. 'When I started out I just did the things that came naturally to me. I really hate being let down by tradesmen so I was determined not to let that happen to my customers. As it turns out that little bit of extra care has meant I get friends and family of people I have done work for on the phone constantly so it's not just personally satisfying but good for business too. At the end of the day it's not rocket science, is it?'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Community base plan dealt blow by firebugs

The arson-hit West Cannock Sports & Social Club

ARSONISTS dealt a blow to plans to convert a derelict building into a community base.

The former West Cannock Sports Club and Social Centre in Hednesford was badly damaged in a blaze in the early hours of Wednesday, June 15.

A charity had planned to restore the building and bring it back into community use.

Mervyn George, a development manager for the volunteer-run Ecolife UK, said he now had concerns for the future of the building in Bradbury Lane, known locally as The Fives. Ecolife UK, a Cannock environmental charity, announced earlier this year a bid to convert the club into an educational base, similar to the Centre of Alternative Technology, in Machynlleth, in north Wales.

The charity is trying to raise about £150,000 to buy the site and received a £9,900 grant from the Lottery Awards for All scheme, which would cover office and rent costs for one year.

The 3.9-acre site has been unused for more than three years and the building was originally a social club for miners.

After inspecting the damage, Mr George said he feared the building would have to be torn down. He said: "It's a safety issue to see if it needs to be demolished.

"At the moment I don't exactly know how things are going to work out.

"It's sad, it's a nice old building. I've had a look inside, through the burned-out roof, but it's hard to tell without going in there."

Technology

Mr George wanted to show how old buildings can be brought up to date to benefit the local community.

Plans for the building included a cafe, a lecture hall, and a demonstration room to teach people about alternative technology and the latest gadgets that save energy and money.

Staffordshire Police have confirmed that they are investigating the fire.

The building is known as The Fives because of its association with the former No 5 Colliery.

But it has had problems with vandals and drug users.

Youngsters brush up on twinning link

CHILDREN have tried their hand at painting to help celebrate the link between Cannock and its German twin town.

Talented youngsters took part in the drop-in workshop at the Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford, to help create some of the district's biggest-ever paintings.

Three community artists from Cannock and Rugeley held the sessions to colour and create the four large murals celebrating the partnership between Cannock and Datteln.

Artist Sue Bugler said it was an enjoyable day. "The drop-in workshop was a lot of fun and the paintings look fantastic," she said.

"They will be displayed in Cannock Park eventually for everyone to enjoy. They are wonderfully abstract pieces, and they include images from Cannock and Datteln.

"Having the children here to help do it too has been great. We had around 15 come to help us paint."

Artist Angie Boughey with Mason Minton (aged three), Toby Minton (five) and Bradley Minton (seven)

Laws should stop rich from avoiding taxes

PLEASE let me express my views on the letter sent in by Paul Witton on June 9, headlined 'Capitalist system in Crisis'.

I think his comments about the Con/Dems inflicting vicious cuts, the hardest on workers and the most defenceless people in this country, are spot on!

Fat cats and the rich are becoming more affluent, and appear not to be paying anywhere near their fair share in the current round of cuts.

I feel that workers will have to strike, and all others effected by the cuts will have to demonstrate to protect themselves and families against poverty.

And they should be allowed to do so without undemocratic laws being made to stop them.

It's about time laws were introduced to stop bankers using taxpayers money to pay bonuses, and stop the avaricious who appear to be avoiding billions of pounds in taxes.

I do not believe the Government when they say: "We are all in it together."

Readers should take notice to what P Witton says.

In my opinion, this man has the ability to become Prime Minister, and if he were we would all be better off. Apart from the super rich, and what would be wrong with that?

Elderly deprived of travel tokens and dial-a-ride

THANK you 'Helen of Hednesford' for highlighting the expenses claimed by our MP.

I think that if there had been a 'Helen of Hednesford' in every constituency we probably would not have had the MPs' expenses scandal.

The only speech I heard Mr Burley make in the Commons was to 'slag off' the Trade Unions.

Well let me remind him, if it had not been for the Trade Unions, the Labour Party and the Co-Op party, workers would still be on £2 an hour, no minimum wage and no health service both the main stay of working families.

Perhaps in his next speech in the Commons he will (in the true spirit of fairness) slate his fellow Tories and Liberals for depriving the elderly and disabled in the constituency of their travel tokens and dial-a-ride service, thereby making life more difficult by making it hit or miss whether they can access doctors surgeries and keep hospital appointments. I would also like to hear him criticise the greedy bankers who got us into the credit crunch mess in the first place.

When the MP has got over his euphoria of becoming a Parliamentary Private Secretary or in Westminster language 'a department's dogsbody' perhaps he will turn his attention to problems in this constituency.

SO Arriva want photographers to capture their daily life.

Well here we go. They never turn up on time, they make you late for interviews and work. Nominate a favourite driver – that's really hard because they never smile, are miserable, very rarely say thank you.

They should provide a first class service but they don't.

When you ring up and ask why a bus was late, its either: don't know or a driver never turned in. What excuses are they?

If Arriva want to be recognised, they have to change their attitude to us, the humble passengers. Without them, they would not have a job.

As for taking pictures of buses well we shall have to find one first.

Judge Labour on their actions

IN response to the letter by George Adamson, Chronicle June 9.

The Labour Party just don't get it do they? Why they have been out of power at the Cannock Chase District for nearly a decade while the national Labour Party has run the Country for the same period?

I'll tell you why. At the start of the 2000s when there was a Labour administration at quite a prosperous period. The council was underperforming, recycling rates were the lowest in the country, Council Tax was ever-increasing, Chase Leisure Centre was in an appalling state and with no maintenance budget for repairs. There was no Rugeley Leisure Centre, Labour closed all f the community centres, and always favoured Cannock over Rugeley and Hednesford.

All that changed when the Lib Dems/Conservatives took control with eight successive and successful years. A new Rugeley Leisure Centre was delivered, fortnightly collection was introduced, green waste collection started. After being in the lowest quartile we were in the highest and every council was copying the way we do things.

Town centres began to be regenerated at Hednesford and Rugeley, with Tesco supermarkets being built and things are on the way up.

We introduced shared services with Stafford Bough Council which will save the taxpayers thousands, and a zero per cent Council Tax increase for 2011/12.

The Labour Party is now taking over a council in excellent order. We looked at disabled parking and decided not to do anything; the Government gave the County control over the running of the travel tokens scheme, so we had no choice but to end the dial-a-ride scheme.

The Labour group promised much over the years if they got into power like returning to the domestic weekly collection of waste, rebuilding Cannock Stadium (for a handful of athletes from the district) costing £1,000 a day, reducing Cabinet members' allowances, and year-on-year zero per cent Council Tax increases. Let them be judged on their promises and actions.

What is important is that they are only in control with the help of their Conservative friends.

The deal was that the Conservatives would abstain from voting when a Labour leader was proposed and vice-versa when a Tory chairman was proposed, the only opposition was the Liberal Democrats.

The coalition between the two parties continued when Labour announced their Cabinet team and the Tories took the chairmanships of the committees. People didn't know that voting Conservative at May's district election meant voting for the bad old days of a Labour-controlled administration. I though the two parties were sworn enemies, but not at Cannock Chase District Council it seems.

Put 'Great' back into Great Britain

THE Archbishop of Canterbury is so right about the Con/Dems cuts to the economy with inflation at 4.5 per cent and supermarkets profits out of control.

Ofgem and the Government have no power to control the constant increases to the price of gas or electricity, the power companies know that EU trade laws override our Government's.

The cost to Britain to uphold these laws is £100bn per year and the Government's own figures state we will paying £62bn per year in interest to the International Monetary Fund in 2015.

For the IMF to disagree with these cuts is like turkeys voting for Christmas. Even with all their cuts Cameron will still privatise prisons, forests, social services and parts of the NHS like Thatcher did. Tony Blair is still chasing the job of EU President. We don't need a vote for a President we need a referendum to vote us out of the EU and put the Great back into "Great Britain".

£30m retail scheme will create 600 jobs

Developers looking to attract big names

THE developers behind Hednesford's £30 million regeneration plan hope are seeking to attract more big name national stores to the town centre.

A meeting of Hednesford Community Forum was told that work on the project, which will create 600 jobs, was due to be completed by October 2012.

Mark Watkins, from St Modwen, said the aim was to have Tesco, who have confirmed they will take the main 50,000sq ft store which will be on stilts, trading in time for Christmas 2012.

Mr Watkins said they were targeting national retailers for the other stores in the Victoria Shopping Park off Victoria Street.

Work is already under way on phase one at the Rugeley Road end of the town centre which will provide a budget food store and four two-storey units off Market Street.

It is due for completion in September or October. There will also be a 170-space car park. The second phase will include 648 parking spaces.

Dance

Forum chairman Councillor George Adamson, who is also the new leader of Cannock Chase Council, said the intention was that parking in Hednesford town centre would be free. The second phase will also include a new 10,000sq ft dance venue on the first floor to replace the old Aquarius Ballroom.

Town centre trader Amanda Crags said traders close to phase one were unhappy that the closure of the car park, which had been due to last six weeks, had over-run and added they faced up to 10 weeks without it. She warned that as a result traders were losing money from passing trade.

The district council's economic development manager Glenn Watson said they were trying to minimise inconvenience and that the car park should be fully re-opened this week. Councillor Adamson said the district council cabinet was to consider three options to provide temporary public toilets to replace those that had closed with the start of building work.

Hednesford Town Council chairman Councillor Alan Pearson said St Modwen should fund temporary toilets for the length of the project.

The forum is asking for a report to its next meeting in September on how buses will operate safely in and out of the three bays provided to replace the old station.

Locals are concerned about buses going around an island that will form part of the road layout.

Sisters show support for cancer fight

TWO nurses are to take part in a fundraising run to support their sister who has inoperable lung cancer.

Sarah Jones and Sue Keaveney were impressed by Lyn Barrington's determination to continue raising money despite her illness, they entered the Race for Life in aid of Cancer Research UK.

The sisters, who grew up in Rugeley, are urging other women to join them for the 5km event in Stafford on July 12.

Lyn, from Stafford, was diagnosed in March, just before her 50th birthday. Sue, a 47-year-old Cannock Hospital theatre nurse from Lichfield, said: "Everyone is inspired by her enthusiasm and personality."

Sarah, 39, from Stafford, is an operating department practitioner at Stafford Hospital.

Former organiser Joanne Barber of Station Street, Cheslyn Hay, in her garden

Joanne Barber's garden which will be open for the Open Gardens village event on Sunday

Ten plots on show in 14th yearly fundraiser

Village gardens bloom in time for annual open day

Joanne Barber has put a lot of work into her Cheslyn Hay garden, on Station Street

GARDENERS in Cheslyn Hay have got their fingers crossed that the sun will be shining for an open garden event this weekend.

Ten villagers are opening up their doors from 10am-5pm on Sunday (June 26) for the annual showcase of the very best gardens in the area.

The village's allotments will also be available for viewing in what is the 14th year the event has been run.

One of the beautiful gardens on display will be that of former organiser Joanne Barber, who has been involved every single year. She has passed on the administrator reigns to Tim Simmonds, which gives her more time to tend to her garden which she admits takes a lot of hard work.

Care

"I put a lot of time and effort into preparing the garden – I don't get much housework done in June!" Mrs Barber said.

"We're all keen gardeners but the last little push is about polishing the roses and cutting the grass.

"You can tell that the people involved really care about their gardens." All but two of the gardens are within walking distance of each other and Mrs Barber suggested a good starting point would be 68 Station Street, where programmes will be available.

Entry is £3, which gains access to all 11 locations and children get in free.

Funds raised from the day will go to Cancer Research and Cheslyn Hay Scouts Group.

Refreshments, including hot pork and turkey baps, will be on sale, as well as a host of plants.

Seaside trip is free coach to Southport

HEDNESFORD AFTERNOON TOWNSWOMEN

THE meeting on June 13 featured a fascinating speaker, Helen Bradin, who gave a talk entitled "A Day in the Life of a Solicitor".

She explained the training and varied work involved in the world of lawyers. Helen also left every member with a leaflet as a guide to legal services.

Joy passed on a thank you to Helen for her informative and humorous talk.

On May 11, some of the members went to see a performance of Oliver! At the Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton, which was most enjoyable.

The lunch club enjoyed a meal at the Trafalgar Inn, in Littleworth Road for the May meeting. Some 17 members were eating at the Bridge Houses Hotel in Penkridge yesterday (22).

The July 20 lunch will be Orbital near Sainsbury's. Lifts are being arranged for members who do not have transport. Future events include a coffee morning and nearly new clothes sale on July 2.

The national AGM is being held in Birmingham on June 24. Delegates and observers will meet other members of the TWG from all over the country.

Mandates this year are 'sexy clothing on sale for young children' and 'care of geriatrics in hospital'.

The annual trip to the seaside is planned for August 24 and members will be going on a free coach to Southport this year. Friends will be asked to pay £10.

Meetings take place at St Peter's Church hall on the second Monday of each month at 2pm. Enquiries can be made with the chairman Doreen Archer on 01543 877987.

Supermarket offers behind scenes visit

ETCHING HILL WI

THE June meeting was well attended and the president Margaret Porter was pleased to welcome members and visitors.

The speaker for the evening was Kerry Neal from Waitrose, Lichfield and she spoke on "What makes Waitrose Lichfield different?"

Members were interested to hear the history of the store and how it came to be a part of the John Lewis Partnership. Kerry had a number of images from all parts of the store's history, but those showing the early shops, particularly the first on Acton High Street, London were of keen interest.

Members were prompted to ask a variety of questions about how the business had changed as a result.

Kerry also focused on the way the business is run now, with each employee being a partner in the business and receiving a share of the annual profits each year. It became clear that Waitrose is an excellent employer encouraging a real 'family' feeling among its employees.

In the autumn members will be given an opportunity to go to a 'behind the scenes' visit to the Lichfield store.

During the business part of the meeting members were reminded of a number of social events. These included the Macmillan Walk on June 17, the lunch club who are meeting on June 29, the Rose and Shamrock Group 60th birthday party on July 6 and the car rally on July 8.

Further details about any of these events can be obtained from the secretary Chris Stinton.

New members are always made welcome at our meetings and further details can be found at www.wi-etching-hill.org.uk or from Chris on 01889 585505.

New club chairman sworn in

CANNOCK & DISTRICT MEN'S PROBUS CLUB

CHRIS Gooch has been elected as chairman for 2011/12. The investiture was conducted by retiring chairman John Smith with founder chairman George Jennings at the ceremony.

Cannock & District Men's Probus Club was founded in 1986, providing for those who have retired from full-time work. Meetings are held every other Monday at the Unionist Club, in High Green at 10am. Call Chris Gooch on 01543 504721.

Ladies are told about fashion store history

CHASE TERRACE LADIES CLUB

AT the June 9 meeting the club was pleased to welcome Vicky and Sue from Bon Marche in Cannock.

Members have enjoyed their previous visits and they brought a selection of the store's range of clothing for the ladies to browse, try on and reserve if they so wished.

Vicky gave us a brief history of how the Bon Marche stores began.

Bon Marche was founded in 1982 by brothers Gurchait and Gurnaik Singh. They first sold from a market stall in Huddersfield and in 1985 opened a store in Huddersfield.

They had recognised a gap in the market for good value clothing for the more mature ladies. They established more than 280 stores countrywide before selling up to Peacock's which is now a sister store. These days the clothes are more trendy and include a range by designer David Emanuel which is available in certain stores, the nearest one locally being Lichfield. Another 100 stores have been opened including one in Gibraltar.

It also possible to buy online from the website: www.bonmarche.co.uk Their clothes come in sizes 12 to 24, with trouser lengths available in 25, 27 and 29 inches.

Refreshments followed and Jean Scott reminded the ladies to pay any outstanding money for this summer's trips, in particular for Stratford-upon-Avon on Saturday June 25. The raffle was drawn and the meeting brought to a close.

Tonight (Thursday 23) John Spires will give a talk about orchids. The meeting will start, as usual, at 7.30pm.

Worries over travellers at new road site

RESIDENTS fear travellers could up alongside a road being built ahead of a new housing development in Hednesford.

The controversial Pye Green Valley link road is designed to open up a new area for hundreds of homes to be built. But residents at the recent Hednesford Community Forum aired fears over travellers moving on to land alongside.

They expressed concern that travellers could easily access land by the new road because insufficient fencing had been put up.

Hednesford Town Council chairman Councillor Alan Pearson called for the highways authority to dig a trench along the outside of the road so that caravans could not be driven off the road.

"It is totally open off the island," he said.

Forum chairman Councillor George Adamson said Staffordshire County Council had promised it would block off access with concrete blocks to make sure no-one could get on to the road. "We will take this up with them," he said.

"We were promised the concrete block at regular distances up and down the road to stop it being used by boy racers and travellers. There was also concern that youths on motorcycles were also using the area.

Inspector Chris Ellerton, of Cannock police, said they were monitoring the area and would work with land owners if travellers did move on to the site.

Problem

He said they were also concerned about an increasing problem of anti-social behaviour by young motorcyclists across the district.

The link road, which will cost £3 million, runs from the junction of Cannock Road and Belt Road to Green Heath Road. It was built to enable the regeneration of the Pye Green Valley area.

Call to step up police patrols in town centre

THE chairman of Hednesford Town Council has called for police to step up patrols in the town centre following the start of the regeneration of the area.

Councillor Alan Pearson told a meeting of Hednesford Community Forum that he feared criminals might target valuable metal and other building materials needed for the project.

He warned that thefts could hold up the pace of the re-development.

Cannock Police Inspector Chris Ellerton said a strategy to step up night time policing was in place and was being reviewed on a weekly basis. Councillor Pearson said lead thefts had taken place on house roofs in Greenheath Road.

Insp Ellerton said there had also been an attempt to steal a boiler from an empty house in Pye Green.

"We are looking at a patrol strategy in the areas being targeted," he added.

Councillor Graham Burnett asked for a report on crime figures for the last three months to be presented to future forum meetings. Insp Ellerton said he would present an overview of crime in Hednesford to the September meeting,

The forum also heard that traders and residents feared drug dealers and addicts displaced from Cannock town centre had moved into Hednesford.

Trader Amanda Crags said there had been an increase in gangs hanging around the town centre in the evenings.

Sounding off over play gear

Daisy Sutcliffe (aged six), plays with the new outdoor musical equipment at Chancel Primary School

A RUGELEY school has installed almost £4,000 worth of new outdoor playing equipment.

Chancel Primary's Parents, Teachers and Friends Association has been focused for around 18 months on installing an outdoor activity area to keep pupils active.

Deputy head Tina Blankley said everyone at the Wolseley Road school was grateful for all the fundraising efforts.

She said: "It's something we have had an interest in for quite a long time. We have been very keen to get some outdoor play equipment to boost the pupils' physical activities.

"We have been working with the PTFA who have organised several school fetes and activities."

Key Stage One pupils can make use of an outdoor music area, where pupils can be creative with a range of all-weather instruments, like pipes. A traversing wall has also been set up for Key Stage Two pupils.

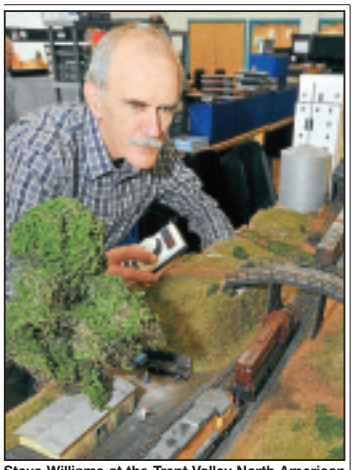
Planners 'no' to wind turbine bid



Steve Williams at the Trent Valley North American Modellers Show with a North Plains set up

PLANS for a wind turbine that have caused months of concern for residents have been refused by councillors.

Lichfield District Council's planning committee voted unanimously to reject the application by Severn Trent Water for a 413ft turbine at Burntwood Sewage Treatment Plant, in Peters Lane.

Opponents submitted a detailed outline of their objections to the council. They were backed by Burntwood and Hammerwich Action Group, Burntwood Action Group and Hammerwich Environmental Group.

One of the campaigners, Simon Pearson, said the groups represented more than 3,000 residents who had been fighting Green Belt issues including housing development.

He said the environmental statement provided by Severn Trent had not taken into account local wildlife including bats, owls, buzzards and lapwings on adjacent farmland and on the site at the sewage works. Speaking after the outcome, Mr Pearson said: "The councillors were clear that it was their intention to protect the Green Belt and important landscapes.

Location

"Severn Trent Water's submission was not at all convincing, neither was their reasoning that the turbine location at 670 metres (2,198ft) from the nearest property was acceptable – it is most certainly not.

"Our message to the directors of Severn Trent is simple: Would you want one of these monsters at the bottom of your garden? We certainly don't."

Biogas scheme rejected

PLANS to build a plant at a farm near Penkridge to generate electricity have been rejected.

Farmgen Ltd wanted to install an anaerobic digester at Dunston Heath Farm in Long Lane, to produce biogas.

The process which would have generated sufficient power for 1,000 homes.

South Staffordshire District Council's regulatory committee turned it down on traffic grounds.

The council said site owner Farmgen failed to provide sufficient information about the transport routes to be used to bring in crops to fuel the plant.

Show on track to be repeated

MODEL railway enthusiasts visited Armitage with Handsacre Village Hall to enjoy a display of layouts based on real railways in America.

Trent Valley North American Modellers held its second annual show at the venue in Shropshire Brook Road, Armitage. There were a dozen scale model working layouts operating in the hall.

Club members specialise in creating North American railways of the past and modern day in miniature. There were also a number of trade stands from specialist model railway businesses, some of which sponsored the show.

Show organiser Nick Palette, of Handsacre, said about 200 people had come along during the day and hoped to repeat the event next year.

Artists' work goes on show

BEAUTIFUL artwork is on show at the Chasewater Innovation Centre.

The Painting for Pleasure exhibition features work by the Rushall Pleasure Painters and is on display until next Wednesday (June 29).

The work, which is an array of watercolours, pastels, oils and acrylics has been done by local artists taking inspiration from the area and further afield.

Other subjects include animals and people.

Many of the artists belong to the Walsall Society of Artists, and are amateur painters who meet regularly in the Rushall Parish Church.

Entry is free and the exhibition runs until June 29. The centre is open daily.

Hilary Foxley, development officer at the Innovation Centre, said it was a good exhibition to visit.

She said: "We are delighted to welcome back the Rushall Pleasure Painters, who always inspire us with their work.

"There are some beautiful paintings on display."

Chasewater Innovation Centre support manager Chris Rayne at the Rushall Pleasure Painters display

Meeting of businesses

MEMBERS of the business community attended a special event aimed at introducing the new Local Enterprise Partnership serving the south of Staffordshire.

Pritchard Group chairman Fred Pritchard hosted the briefing at the Ramada hotel as president of Cannock Chase Chamber of Commerce.

The area is served by the Greater Birmingham and Solihull Local Enterprise Partnership which involves local businesses and local authorities working together.

Mr Pritchard said Cannock had strong business connections with Birmingham and there were benefits for Staffordshire business in being part of the new structure.

"There is a good track record of partnership working between the private and the public sector in Cannock and across Southern Staffordshire and the wider LEP area," he said. "This is something I am confident the new LEP will build on."

McDonald's in plan to launch new drive-thru

FAST food chain McDonald's could create around 65 jobs by opening a new drive-thru restaurant in Rugeley.

An application has been sent to Cannock Chase District Council for permission to open on vacant land in Power Station Road.

If approved, the outlet would be a single storey building with a "modern appearance". It would have 85 seats and 51 parking spaces. The outdoor area would be landscaped and provide space for dining outside.

A report sent to the council, said: "The company has recently been undertaking a thorough review of its portfolio of restaurants and is seeking to increase its representation in certain key locations."

McDonald's spokesman Lucy Aldington said: "We are interested in opening a new restaurant in Rugeley.

"We have submitted a planning application and are currently in discussion with planning officers. If our application is approved we will open a drive-thru restaurant which will offer a convenient service to customers whilst also creating 65 new jobs.

"We have been excited about the development opportunities in Rugeley for some time, we feel it has a lot to offer.

"It will provide a great location for our customers and a boost to the local jobs market."

The answer to country's energy crisis

WASTE firm Biffa claims its giant new 'digester' plant could be to be the answer to the country's energy crisis – converting so-called slop buckets to electricity.

Biffa has unveiled the country's first super anaerobic digestion plant at its Poplars landfill site in Cannock, which will process up to 120,000 tons of waste every year.

The £24 million food digestion plant is the UK's biggest and the company says it hopes similar plants will be built across the country to convert waste food scraps into usable electricity.

The Government is keen to introduce kitchen 'slop buckets' into every home with the waste then being sent to the plants by local authorities.

Pub chain Wetherspoons has begun sending food scraps from some of its local outlets to the new site at the Poplars, while source segregated food waste is also delivered to the site from Biffa's collection network.

It is then fed in to the digester to transform 120,000 tons of scraps into six megawatts of power which provide enough power to fuel 6,000 homes, 24 hours a day.

Speaking at the plant launch, Biffa chief executive Ian Wakelin said: "This is the future of waste. It is taking food that could once only be sent to landfill and turning it into something of value on a truly industrial scale. It is a key milestone in society's drive to reduce waste, cut emissions and recover the inherent value in our waste."

The Cannock facility, which employs 30 people, cost Biffa around £30m to put together and took the company 12 months to build and a year before that to plan, according to Mr Wakelin.

He said the plant was the latest in a long line of commitments from Biffa to handle more of the UK's food waste.

Mr Wakelin said every year, the UK threw away around 15 million tonnes of food waste. It is thought that around half of this comes from businesses.

Much of this food waste is currently sent to landfill sites where it breaks down into methane and carbon dioxide, both powerful greenhouse gases.

Bunker

Solid and liquid waste is emptied into a bunker at the site then crushed before grit and packaging is removed. The organic material then enters a suspension tank before it is pasteurised.

The pasteurisation process heats the material to 70°C for at least one hour. The waste is then piped into one of five digester tanks in which naturally occurring microbes break the material down, creating methane and carbon dioxide (biogas) and water.

The biogas is collected and used to generate electricity by three on-site gas turbines. The plant is self sufficient using the electricity generated from the biogas to power the plant.

Hospital staff 'trouser' fundraising cash

STAFF at Cannock Chase Hospital donned 'bad' trousers to raise money.

Staff in the therapy, physiotherapy and outpatients departments have been wearing weird and wacky outfits all this week to raise funds for the hospital's Rehab Day Unit. Patients and volunteers are also getting involved with one even covering his trousers in tin foil.

Physiotherapist Angela Disbury, who organised event, said: "We are always looking for ways to engage patients and staff in light-hearted amusement and we saw this as an opportunity to do this while raising funds for the unit."

Staff and patients are paying £1 for each day they take part. Some are also being sponsored to sport their bad taste fashions.

Sisters left reeling over rare disease

TWO Hednesford sisters have shocked doctors by being diagnosed with the same rare muscle-wasting disease.

Pompe disease affects one in every 40,000, so it is even rarer for two members of the same family to be diagnosed with the genetic condition – as Jackie Bailey and Andrea Pugh have.

Jackie, aged 46, of Snowdon Road, said: "We're still coming to terms with it. There is no cure. I was in complete shock when I found out.

"The doctors were taken aback too – it's rare for two members of the same family to have it.

Biopsy

"Before it was diagnosed they thought I had sciatica because I had neck and back problems. But then it got worse so I had a muscle biopsy and when the results came through I found I had Pompe disease."

The sisters come from a family of five but none of their other siblings have the disease.

The condition disables the heart and muscles and leaves the sufferer needing enzyme replacement therapy.

Pompe disease was the subject of the Harrison Ford film Extraordinary Measures last year.

Grandmother Jackie, aged 46, who lives with husband Ivan, 62, said: "The doctors told us it meant a lifespan after diagnosis of between 10 and 20 years.

Jackie Bailey, left, and Andrea Pugh, who both have the rare Pompe disease

"The treatment we have now only prolongs it but because Andrea has it too, it has brought us closer together"

The sisters have to undergo an infusion of myozyme every two weeks with each session lasting six hours.

Andrea, 44, of Florence Street, said: "The doctor said that over time we would get worse and worse. We've got it for life and will die from it.

"You just end up spending each day as it comes.

"It sounds strange but I'm glad I'm not the only one, it helps to have that support."

Firm is taking guard to protect the Hoard

A STAFFORD security firm has been appointed to guard the Staffordshire Hoard – for the second time.

Mayflower Control Ltd, of Herbert Road, will be managing on-site security for the Staffordshire Hoard on Tour at the Shire Hall Gallery, Stafford from July 2 to 24.

When the Anglo Saxon treasure was discovered in a field at Hammerwich in 2009, it was Mayflower that guarded the site.

The discovery attracted worldwide interest and after handling the resulting media and public frenzy Mayflower have now been chosen to guard the collection of never before seen items which have been selected for the forthcoming exhibition. The tour moves on to Lichfield Cathedral from July 30 to August 21 and then onto Tamworth Castle from August 27 to September 18.

Councillor Pat Corfield, County Council cabinet member for culture said: "The county council was very keen to charge a local company with the hugely important task of guarding this invaluable selection of items.

"While we are not expecting anyone to plunder these priceless samples during the summer it is reassuring to know that this collection is in very safe hands."

Mayflower director Bernard Bartlett said: "It is fantastic that the hoard is going on tour and Mayflower Control Ltd is extremely proud to once again be chosen to protect this wonderful national historic treasure."

Students' artwork on show to public

With artwork at Great Wyrley Performing Arts High are, front: Ben Smallman (aged 17): back; Tom Mew (17), Sophie Hardy (16) and Michael Burrows (17)

SIXTH form students in Great Wyrley are staging a one night art exhibition next week.

The work will be on show in the drama studio at Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School in Hall Lane on Monday (June 27) from 6pm to 8pm.

On show at the free exhibition will be work from 15 students in years 12 and 13.

Art teacher Michelle Millington said: "They have produced some ambitious work using a range of materials. The work is all based on their own themes and has been produced as part of their exam work."

It is the third year the school has put on a sixth form art exhibition which is open to the public.

Head of art Kate Ireson has been working with Michelle and fellow art teacher Heather Down to put together the exhibition.

Volunteer Chase pair rewarded for efforts

THE FIRST recipients of a volunteer award at the Cannock Chase Area of Outstanding National Beauty have been announced as Fred and Glynis Ward.

The award has been established to recognise the hard work undertaken by volunteers and more than 30 people attended a celebratory barbecue where the first winners were revealed.

Husband and wife Fred and Glynis, both in their 60s and from Brocton, were presented with a glass trophy during the ceremony at Beaudesert Park Farm.

They have given up their time to take part in litter picking, fixed point photography monitoring, clearing Himalayan Balsam and helping to conduct the AONB's visitor survey. Glynis said she and Fred were surprised to be given the award.

Ruth Hytch with Glynis and Fred Ward

"Giving our time freely helps us to pay back the privilege of living in such a beautiful area," she said

"Being a volunteer for the AONB has helped us to visit parts of Cannock Chase that we would not usually see.

"And through volunteering we've also met lots of people who visit the Chase and learnt more about its heritage and the work of the AONB team."

Assistant AONB Officer, Emma Beaman-Green, explained the thinking behind the award. She said: "We wanted to formally recognise the amazing work they do, so we decided to hold an award ceremony to say thank you collectively

"We chose Fred and Glynis because they are always among the first to volunteer, no matter what. Well done to both of them, and a huge thank you to all our volunteers."

For information about volunteering for Cannock Chase AONB, email cannockchase@staffordshire.gov.uk or call 01889 882613.

Talents on show at church

TALENTED artists showcased their work at an annual church festival.

An exhibition of needlework and textiles and a display of other projects also featured at the festival at Chadsmoor Methodist Church, Cannock Road.

It was organised by Chadsmoor Tapestry Group.

A painting of the church was presented to Rev Edward Sakwe by Sue Brindley of Heath Hayes Art Society.

Visitors could also take part in workshops featuring ribbon and Hardanger embroidery.

The tapestry group, was formed in September 1992 and meets on Wednesdays from 7.15pm. The group has also produced a tapestry to mark the Church Heritage Appeal.

Strictly speaking, Sergeant on stage

Political broadcaster John Sergeant

REVERED political journalist John Sergeant returns to the Lichfield Garrick next month.

Former BBC and ITV reporter Sergeant, who achieved fame of a totally different kind on Strictly Come Dancing, will combine his one-man show with the Lichfield Chamber of Trader & Commerce Business Awards.

After recounting tales of jousting with ex-Prime Ministers Margaret Thatcher, John Major and Tony Blair, he will present 12 awards to the city's best businesses.

Categories include Best in Business, Best Fairtrade Business and Best New Business and have been voted for by Lichfield customers.

The audience will then get an opportunity to grill Sergeant in a question and answer session.

Now aged 67, Oxford-born Sergeant has appeared in a wide variety of television programmes, including Have I Got News For You, Room 101 and QI.

He has also published his best-selling memories – Give Me Ten Seconds – and released Maggie, a book analysing Thatcher's legacy.

Tickets for An Audience with John Sergeant, which takes place on Tuesday July 5, are £18.50. Call 01543 412121 or book at www.lichfieldgarrick.com

Learn how to talk to the animals

BUDDING stage stars can start the long road to the big time by taking part in a one-off production of Doctor Dolittle at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre.

The Church Street venue is running its annual summer workshop from August 15-26 for youngsters aged seven to 16.

The workshop will end with a theatre performance on Saturday, August 27.

It will be the first time the show has been performed in Cannock and promises to be an all-singing all-dancing affair complete with special effects.

Based on the stories of Hugh Lofting, the musical tells the tale of a wacky but kind doctor who can talk to animals.

Auditions for lead roles take place on Monday August 6, where participants are asked to prepare a song that they can perform with an iPod or CD track.

Anyone unable to attend on August 6 should call the theatre to make alternative arrangements.

Tickets for the final performance are £6 and the cost for the two-week workshop is £120. Call 01543 578762.

The Amington Brass Band, who will be performing at the Lichfield Garrick on July 1

Brass band tunes up for concert

STAFFORDSHIRE favourites the Amington Brass Band make the short trip to Lichfield for a gala performance on July 1.

The concert follows the band's debut performance in the pro-am production of Brassed Off and includes a guest appearance from tenor Richard Lloyd-Owen.

Lloyd-Owen joins the group after making a big impact on their Christmas celebration concert last December.

Favourites

The programme will include Ravel's Bolero, Music for the Royal Fireworks, The Impossible Dream, Nessun Dorma and many more favourites.

Amington Brass Band will be on stage at the Garrick, in Castle Dyke, from 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £16.50 and can be booked from www.lichfieldgarrick.com or by calling 01543 412121.

'Hyacinth' in tribute to pianist

THE STAR of comedy classic Keeping up Appearances pays tribute to pianist Dame Myra Hess in an uplifting tale at the Lichfield Garrick this weekend.

Patricia Routledge, best known for her portrayal of Hyacinth Bucket in the BBC sitcom, joins Piers Lane in Admission One Shilling.

Routledge also earned critical acclaim for her role in Hetty Wainthropp Investigates and has many theatre credits to her name.

Classical Australian pianist Piers Lane has performed in more than 40 countries and is the artistic director of the annual Myra Hess Day at the National Gallery in London.

Admission One Shilling recounts Hess's morale-boosting lunchtime concerts during WWII.

Admission One Shilling takes place on Saturday June 25. Tickets are £18. Book at www.lichfieldgarrick.com or call 01543 412121.

Ex-soap trio line up for roles in Monologues

Ex-EastEnders star Louisa Lytton

THREE former soap stars are heading to Lichfield later this year in the smash hit show The Vagina Monologues.

Wendi Peters, known to millions as Cilla in Coronation Street, heads the cast following on from a sell-out tour of the UK in 2010.

Joining Peters will be former EastEnders stars Louisa Lytton, who played Ruby. She also played WPc Beth Green in The Bill and also later appeared on Strictly Come Dancing. Tiana Benjamin, aka feisty EastEnder Chelsea Fox, makes up the cast

The Vagina Monologues has long been critically acclaimed, receiving prestigious nominations for Drama Desk and Obie awards in 1999 in New York, before a nomination for the 2002 Olivier Award for Best Entertainment.

The show is a global phenomenon translated into 45 languages and performed in more than 130 countries, including open-ended runs in New York and Paris.

Whoopi

Some of the world's most successful actresses have taken part in The Vagina Monologues, with Kate Winslet, Whoopi Goldberg, Jerry Hall and Sophie Dahl making appearances, as well as Sharon Osbourne.

The Lichfield Garrick plays host to the show on September 29 and tickets, which cost £19.50, are sure to sell out fast.

To book visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com or call the box office on 01543 412121.

THE MANY FACES OF MICHAEL CAINE

BBC2, 7pm

Over the past half-century Maurice Joseph Micklewhite has starred in more than 100 movies, picked up Oscars for Hannah and Her Sisters and The Cider House Rules, a BAFTA for Educating Rita, a CBE and a knighthood. Of course, the world knows him better as Michael Caine, and in this show the actor reminisces about his incredible career. Caine's dad had been set against him taking up acting, but the curly-haired youngster was determined to pursue the career, and after appearing in a string of low-budget movies such as The Bulldog Breed, opportunity knocked.

The top property guide for Cannock, Penkridge, Heath Hayes Great Wyrley, Rugeley, Hednesford, Burntwood and Lichfield

Viewing of two-bed semi recommended

AGENTS marketing a two-bedroomed semi-detached home in Hednesford are urging internal viewing to fully appreciate the quality of accommodation on offer.

Number 84, Greenheath Road is described as considerably improved and well-equipped by the selling agent, Boot & Son, which is marketing the property for offers in the region of £146,950.

A recessed porch with a quarry tiled floor leads into a reception hall, which provides access to a cellar and lounge. In here, there's a pine floor, pine feature fire surround with a cast/tiled inset, composite marble hearth and ornate plaster ceiling coving and rose.

In the separate dining/family room, there's a brick feature fire surround with an oak mantle over, ornate plaster ceiling rose, coved ceiling, quarry tiled floor and hardwood panelled/glazed French doors to the rear garden.

The kitchen area incorporates wall and base units, beech worksurfaces, shelving, an inset stainless steel sink with mixer taps, plumbing for a dishwasher, electric built-in oven, gas hob with stainless steel splashback and oven hood over and quarry tiled flooring. Upstairs, the main bedroom has a feature fireplace with a cast inset and quarry hearth, picture rail, ornate plaster ceiling rose, coved ceiling, laminate floor and a built-in wardrobe.

The second bedroom includes a picture rail, coved ceiling, ornate plaster ceiling rose, laminate floor and a cast feature fire surround with quarry hearth.

The part-tiled bathroom features painted wood panelling, a white suite comprising a panelled bath, pedestal wash basin with mixer taps, WC and a fully tiled shower cubicle with mixer taps over.

Outside, a utility room has a Belfast sink with mixer taps, WC, plumbing for a washing machine, laminate worksurface and electric heated towel rail.

There's a detached garage with fluorescent light fittings and power points, a garden store, timber workshop and gardens that incorporate lawns, ornamental shrubs, flower borders, a vegetable garden with raised beds, paved terrace and gravelled areas.

To arrange a viewing, call 01543 505454.

Victorian charm with added modern touch

A DETACHED four-bedroomed Victorian house oozing with character and history has come onto the market in Cannock.

The Old Bakery at 50 Cemetery Road was built around 1900 but offers well-equipped and much improved family accommodation in a popular location that's convenient for local amenities.

Boot & Son is marketing this property, which comes with no chain, for £325,000.

Upon entry into the vestibule, there is a Minton tiled floor and a door into the central reception hall, which includes an understairs cupboard.

The lounge has a Minster style feature fire surround and fireplace while there is also a sitting room, study and separate dining room.

The Old Bakery in Cemetery Road is being offered for sale by Boot & Son for £325,000

In the part-tiled refitted breakfast kitchen, there's an extensive range of wall, base and drawer units, laminate worksurfaces, inset ceramic sink with mixer taps, integrated dishwasher, electric eye-level double oven, gas hob, oven hood/extractor, integrated fridge and freezer and ceramic tiled floor.

There's plumbing for a washing machine and a vent for a tumble dryer in the part-tiled utility room. Upstairs, the master bedroom has a part-tiled en suite shower room fitted with a white suite comprising a pedestal wash basin with mixer tap, WC, fully tiled shower cubicle and vanity unit with mirrored doors.

There are three further bedrooms, all with coved ceilings, and a part-tiled family bathroom with a suite that incorporates a panelled bath with mixer tap and shower screen, pedestal wash basin with mixer tap, WC, vanity unit with cupboards and drawers below, mirror and ceramic tiled floor.

Outside, there is a WC and a detached double-width garage with up-and-over doors, fluorescent light fittings, power points and alarm.

The house is approached via an asphalt driveway providing ample off-road parking while the foregarden is enclosed with railings.

The lounge has a Minster style feature fire surround

Terrace

There is a 9ft gravelled area to the right which could provide suitable standing for a caravan, boat or trailer if required.

South-facing, the enclosed rear garden features a paved terrace, lawns and ornamental trees and shrubs.

Call the agents Boot & Son on 01543 505454 to arrange a viewing.

Event will get first buyers on property ladder

FIRST time buyers are invited to an open evening at Jayman estate agents next week.

The agents will be happy to help people take their first steps on the property ladder.

The open evening takes place on Wednesday, June 29, from 6-8pm at the Jayman offices at 8, Wolverhampton Road.

The team will be on hand to help with mortgages, deposits, available properties, surveys, solicitors and all aspects of purchasing.

Feel free to join office manager Sharon Humphreys, mortgage director Mark Chatterfield, Charlotte Rose and Marie Marklew and the rest of the team, who will all be on hand to have a no obligation chat about purchasing your first property.

For further information call 01543 505566.

Number 96 Brenton Road is a generously proportioned family home that includes a games room

Panoramic views from extended detached

OFFERS based on £395,000 are being sought for an extended five-bedroomed detached set in a highly sought after area with panoramic views across Penn Common.

Number 96 Brenton Road is a generously proportioned family home that includes a games room, utility, double entry driveway, off-road parking and a large rear garden with a picturesque countryside outlook. It is being marketed via Sanders, Wright & Freeman.

A large enclosed entrance porch gives access to the reception hall, which has laminate flooring, ceiling coving, dado rail and a useful understairs storage cupboard.

The front-facing sitting room has a laminate floor, dado rail, ceiling coving and a feature brick fireplace with a raised hearth and gas fire.

In the L-shaped extended rear living room/dining area, there's laminate flooring, exposed ceiling beams, a contemporary style fireplace with a fitted flame effect gas fire and double-glazed double doors ope-ning out onto rear patio.

The part-tiled breakfast kitchen has a range of wall, drawer and base units, rolled-edge worksurfaces, a one-and-a-quarter bowl sink and drainer unit with mixer tap, built-in electric oven with four ring gas hob above, space for a fridge, plumbing for a dishwasher, tiled flooring, beamed ceiling and doorway to a spacious pantry with power points and fitted shelving.

The side lobby, has doors to the rear garden, a store room, guest WC and utility with appliance space.

There are five bedrooms with the smallest suitable as an office. The second bedroom includes a fitted wash basin with vanity unit beneath while the third has a built-in wardrobe and the fourth a large store room/dressing area.

The family bathroom includes towel rail, wash basin with mixer tap and vanity unit beneath and a panelled bath with electric shower above. There's a separate WC.

The home is approached via a double entry driveway providing off-road parking with access to the garage.

The large established private rear garden is a particular feature of this house, which boasts fine views, a full width patio, lawn, further paved patio and tree and shrub borders.

For more details call 01902 575555.

Volvo eco car crosses Europe on a single tank

By Matt Joy

IF you've managed to get this far in your motoring life without sparing a thought for fuel bills or the environment, then I'm secretly impressed.

There's nothing like the tide of public opinion to raise something to the top of the agenda.

It wasn't that long ago that hardly anyone knew about carbon dioxide emissions, but these days it's more socially acceptable to banter about g/km than bhp.

Volvo isn't ashamed to admit it's been in the business of making family cars for decades now; it knows what works and what doesn't.

Its long-deserved reputation for safety is ever-present, yet perhaps of greater interest now is an emphasis on creating cars that are good to look at and very economical too. An impossible combination maybe?

The new V60 DRIVe represents a serious attempt to fill all those roles. You should be familiar with the regular V60 by now: A slick, modern Volvo right down to its core and yet still able to do the boring stuff.

But the DRIVe model brings with it the ability to achieve some remarkably efficient figures. Try 62.8mpg and 119g/km for the V60, a fraction better for the S60 saloon.

What's more, rather than the pie-in-the-sky figures that many seem to think the official statistics are, a little application makes them achievable.

To prove it, Volvo set the task of driving a new V60 DRIVe from its UK headquarters in Marlow to Mayrhofen in Austria on a single tank of fuel.

My geography is poor at the best of times, but I know that 840 miles without refuelling is no mean feat.

Sponsor

It was worth the effort, though, as Volvo is the key sponsor of the Snowbombing Festival which combines winter sports with some top-drawer music acts. It seemed a long way away at the starting point, however.

Even starting with the M25 couldn't diminish the V60's qualities.

Despite not even being run in yet (and anyone will tell you that diesels in particular don't really get going until they have more than 1,000 miles on them), the 1.6-litre diesel unit gave the kind of low-speed pull that we've come to expect, thanks to the 199lb/ft of torque available from just 1,750rpm.

There's a six-speed manual gearbox too, rather than the five speeds with which many eco-specials are lumbered.

The V60 rattled off the 100 miles to Folkestone and the Channel Tunnel crossing with little effort, and once on the French side sticking to a steady 75mph was much easier.

The cabin did a fine job of looking after its occupants too, with seats that are very supportive and comfortable.

There's a healthy complement of equipment, too, as this is no stripped-out economy model.

Better still, if you go for the R-Design model innocent passers-by would mistake it for the hot model in the range.

R-Design gets you very attractive and large alloy wheels and a tasteful bodykit for sportiness – but not showiness – and sharper suspension.

Much as we'd like the more handsome version here, we were thankful for the softest suspension over broken French roads.

By the end of day one we were comfortably in excess of 60mpg, with 420 miles still to go and more than half a tank do it with.

Day two meant getting on with it. Not only did we have all those miles to cover, but there was the party at the end of it.

The temptation of derestricted autobahn through Germany was largely resisted, although we did up the pace a little as even in a comfortable and attractive cabin, the seven-hundredth motorway mile was beginning to grate. We also began to make even more use of the impressive cabin space. As with any road trip the amount of accumulated detritus increases but the V60 swallowed it all quite happily.

The increased sense of urgency had also chipped away at our average economy, and so as we approached Mayrhofen we had to fully exploit the road-holding in order to avoid braking unless absolutely necessary – thankfully the V60 was faithful, benign and grippy, despite low-rolling resistance tyres.

Remarkably, and despite the seemingly dubious end to the story, the V60 indicated zero fuel in the tank and zero range with 15 miles still go.

Reserve

Holding our breath and everything else (particularly over the level crossing) it trundled happily up to the hotel without a single cough or splutter.

A total of 830 miles down, 56.4mpg on the trip computer.

It might not be the kind of thing that a family would undertake regularly, but the point was proven emphatically.

The V60 DRIVe demands very little in the way of compromise from its occupants, yet delivers pretty impressive fuel efficiency with a little in reserve – which proves that you

Used car prices now on the bounce back

BRITISH Car Auctions' latest Pulse report shows average used-car values climbed in May as the market recovered from the disrupted trading patterns of April.

The bulk of the recovery was felt in the dealer part-exchange sector, while fleet/lease values fell for the fourth consecutive month and the nearly-new sector declined. Sold volumes increased by over 9 per cent, month on month and sale conversions saw modest recovery.

Values across the board improved to £5,790 in May from the £5,626 recorded in April, a £164 increase or a 2.9 per cent gain and the highest monthly average since February. Year-on-year, May 2011 was £134 (2.3 per cent) ahead of the same month in 2010. Sold volumes improved by 9.2 per cent compared to April.

BCA's communications director Tony Gannon said: "Buyer confidence has notably improved following the very disruptive trading conditions experienced at the back end of April. May had the feel of a typical late spring/early summer marketplace, with some price pressure but lots of interest for the most desirable vehicles. Conversions have improved and supply and demand is reasonably well balanced."

"What we are seeing is normal seasonal patterns for this time of year and we are not expecting any real growth in supply this side of the next registration plate change in September."

Replacement

Gannon warned that rising inflation meant families on fixed budgets were less likely to contemplate buying a replacement or "new" used car.

Fleet values continued to fall for the fourth straight month by £64 (less than 1 per cent) to £7,349 in May, while CAP performance improved by a point to 94.27 per cent. Sold volumes improved by 21 per cent compared to April, broadly returning to where they were in March. Year-on-year values were behind by £79 or just over 1 per cent.

Gannon said: "The fleet sector has a particular issue as there are still volumes of older, higher mileage and often poorly presented vehicles clogging the arteries. Many of these have been entered for sale a number of times – usually with over optimistic expectations – and are continuing to depreciate the longer they remain unsold."

The part-exchange sector recovered after three consecutive months of falling values, from April's low-point of £2,668 to reach £2,746 – an increase of £78, or a 2.9 per cent improvement. Year-on-year figures were ahead by £127 (4.8 per cent).

The nearly-new sector saw values fall by nearly £600 to £19,021, or 3 per cent. Model mix was largely responsible for changes in this sector as volumes are low.

Why drive an everyday car when you could drive a BMW every day?

Exchanging your higher rate mobility allowance for a BMW enables you to enjoy worry-free motoring for 3 years.

All you have to do is choose a BMW model available on the Motability Car Scheme and we will do the rest.

Simply make an advance payment and your higher rate mobility allowance will cover the monthly rentals, with no additional costs.

- Insurance and road tax included.
- All servicing, maintenance, windscreen and tyre replacement costs built in.
- Accident and breakdown cover.
- A new BMW every three years.

Motability The leading car scheme for disabled people

Even better, your BMW now features BMW EfficientDynamics technologies that improve performance while reducing fuel consumption and emissions.

To find out more, please contact our Motability Sales Specialist on 01785 246999.

OFFICIAL FUEL ECONOMY FIGURES FOR THE BMW RANGE: EXTRA URBAN 26.2–78.5MPG (10.8-3.9L/100KM). URBAN 12.8-56.5MPG (22.0-5.3L/100KM). COMBINED 19.2-68.9MPG (14.7-4.4L/100KM). CO2 EMISSIONS 352-109G/KM.

The Motability Car Scheme is for those individuals receiving the higher rate mobility component of the Disability Living Allowance or the War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement. Subsequent rental payments are made by diversion of this component of the living allowance. Additional charges may be payable, including excess mileage, damage excess and early termination charges. BMW EfficientDynamics reduces emissions without compromising performance developments and is standard across the model range.

The NV200 makes it easier to run an office from the road

Nissan van that's never out of touch

NISSAN'S commitment to technology and innovation has led to a range of enhancements for the NV200, from satellite navigation to a more powerful engine.

Bluetooth connectivity has been fitted as standard across the entire NV200 range.

For anyone working on the move, this kit is essential to keep connected at all times.

In the SE grade a rear-view camera is fitted as standard. An essential item for any commercial driver backing into tight spots with a full load, it shows what's behind on a dashboard-mounted screen.

Drivers who want the best equipment in their cabin will want to consider the new £13,585 n-tec variant which adds the Nissan Connect satellite navigation and communication system, cruise control and a speed limiter which can be adjusted by the driver.

Keeping cool is easier with a HI-TEC option package for the n-tec variants, with air conditioning and Intelligent Key, Nissan's advanced keyless entry and start system.

The revised NV200 offers even more pace in the engine. In addition to the existing 85hp 1.5-litre dCi, a more powerful 110hp version of the same engine will be offered.

Compliant with Euro 5 emissions regulations and available on all but the entry-level E-grade NV200, the more powerful engine's CO2 output increases by only 2g/km to 139g/km.

Opting for the range-topping engine gives drivers the flexibility of a six-speed manual gearbox.

For businesses whose cargo is people rather than possessions, both five- and seven-seat versions of the NV200 Combi have been upgraded. Bluetooth connectivity is standard across the Combi range, while an SE+ variant adds Nissan Connect, cruise control and a driver adjustable speed limiter to its standard equipment.

Fiat and Alfa owners will benefit from the new brake parts plan

Fiat puts brake on replacement costs

A NEW range of original equipment brake products, designed to help owners keep their Fiat Group cars authentic, has been unveiled by the manufacturer's dealer network.

Among the latest offerings are an extended range of brake pad and disc kits, which allow the network to reduce the fitted price of replacement brake parts by up to 44 per cent.

The kits are now available on around half the Fiat and Alfa Romeo models and include Grande Punto, Panda, 500 and Bravo, along with Alfa Romeo's 147 and MiTo models, with an average price reduction of 29 per cent across the range.

As part of the initiative a new collection of original equipment brake pads and separate fitting kits has also been launched, reducing the price of a replacement pad procedure by up to 53 per cent.

And to help customers with cars no longer in production, the brake kit line-up is completed with a Magneti Marelli range, called Classic Line, which covers out-of-production models and reduces prices by up to 70 per cent.

The range includes Alfa 156, original Fiat Punto and Fiat Ulysse. Rob Calver, parts and services director, Fiat Group Automobiles UK, said: "I'm delighted we have been able to bring down the prices of these important parts,"

Examples of prices for fitted kits include: Fiat Panda – from £136 inc VAT; 500 – from £128; Grande Punto – from £176; Bravo – from £193; Alfa 147 – £211; Alfa MiTo – £191; Alfa 156 – £178.

Mini's moguls hatch a diesel plan

Compact dimensions distinguish the hatchback

IN LITTLE more than a decade, Mini has gone from producing one car to offering buyers a wide range of equally attractive models. So much so, that company executives are keen to stress that Mini isn't a car but a brand.

Alongside the continual tweaking of the technology behind the cars, expansion appears to be the main game at Mini. So much so, that there's something for everyone – well, almost.

Until now a hot diesel variant wasn't really an option. That's in contrast to the John Cooper Works sub-brand, which offered a heady mix of hot hatch enjoyment from a highly-tuned turbo petrol motor.

The Cooper SD moniker is, according to company bosses, the diesel equivalent and it's not restricted to just the three-door hatch: convertible, Clubman and Countryman can be selected with the all-alloy 143bhp, 2.0-litre turbo engine.

For now it's probably best to focus attention on the Cooper SD hatch. It's more likely to be chosen by converted petrol-heads than the other models thanks to its compact dimensions and better agility.

If you think 143 horsepower is a bit stingy in the world of 200-plus horsepower hatchbacks, remember that because it's a diesel the Cooper SD packs a substantial torque punch – 225lb ft of the stuff, which is more than the petrol JCW models.

By Iain Dooley

In practice that contributes to the car's extremely flexible nature: you can trickle around town with ease yet be ready for a quick burst of acceleration in an instant.

Package

Motorway cruising is also a straightforward experience, as cruising in a high gear at low revs is not only kind on the ears but also good for your wallet.

Mini, and parent company BMW, have been enthusiastic proponents of fuel-saving technology in recent years, so it's no surprise to learn that the Cooper SD models come with the now familiar package of engine stop-start and brake energy recovery systems.

Over the course of the car's life you can expect to make modest but valuable savings, while the on-paper figures for the hatch (65.7mpg, 114g/km CO2) show how far the industry has come in a few short years.

With such impressive figures it's easy to lose sight of the Cooper SD's performance potential.

Holding on to a gear for longer or pushing harder on the throttle soon makes you forget about green motoring, though.

For all the JCW references, in reality the Cooper SD has more in common with the petrol-powered Cooper S when it comes to set-up.

More forgiving than Mini's flagship hot model, the Cooper SD's ride is on the right side of firm – corners can be confidently attacked with considerable enthusiasm, while poorly-surfaced roads won't have your fillings falling out of your mouth.

You sit low down in the Cooper SD, which adds to the theatre of the performance experience, and the car's responsive steering allows you to make precise inputs with confidence.

Combined with the slick manual gearshift – an auto box is optional – and the well-spaced pedals, all the ingredients are present to deliver an engaging time behind the wheel.

For anyone still not convinced by the concept of a diesel hot hatch, the Cooper SD is a car that's likely to change some minds.

Nature

By its very nature it doesn't emulate the screaming, rev-happy character of a petrol rival, but you can reach similar speeds having exerted considerably less effort. The 2.0-litre diesel engine positively gushes torque from low down the rev range, and makes accelerating and maintaining a brisk pace extremely easy.

So much so that fewer gearchanges are needed, but more attention has to be paid to the speedometer for obvious reasons – you can be approaching a corner faster than you think.

At idle the engine might be a little vocal but its stealth-like nature at speed is a welcome attribute.

Mini's Cooper SD models aren't the first to demonstrate the potential of a tuned diesel motor, but the package as a whole is a compelling one.

If you want a Mini with a generous slug of power but don't fancy the prospect of funding a serious performance car habit by way of fuel and insurance costs, in SD trim the hatch delivers in spades.

Bumper to bumper

Model: Mini Cooper SD from £18,750 on the road

Engine: 2.0-litre diesel unit developing 143bhp

Transmission: Six-speed manual transmission as standard, driving the front wheels

Performance: Maximum speed 134mph, 0-62mph 8.1 seconds

Economy: 65.7mpg

CO2 Rating: 114g/km

Hire car danger warning

WITH summer holidays around the corner, many Britons are planning their annual break, but as they pack sun cream, swimsuits, passports and hire car documents, there are two vital items many forget.

Checking up on the local rules of the road and making yourself familiar with your hire car's layout could save your life, according to top UK personal injury lawyers Russell Jones & Walker (RJW) who every year deal with a multitude of claims stemming from accidents abroad, ranging from simple shunts to tragic fatalities.

Matthew Tomlinson, who heads up the Foreign Claims division of RJW's Road Traffic Accident unit, said: "People arrive at the airport, pick up their hire car and drive straight off to their apartment or hotel, often unaware that unfamiliarity with the layout of a hire car, getting accustomed to driving on the "wrong" side of the road and general fatigue after what may have been a long journey makes them at their most vulnerable during their first hour of driving overseas.

"And if you are unfortunate enough to be injured in an accident, you need to remember you will be subject to the rules of the country where the accident occurred in relation to limitation, liability and indeed the value of a claim."

Mr Tomlinson recommends a simple check list for holiday makers to follow:

- If you've arranged a hire car, no matter how tired you are spend at least 10 minutes familiarising yourself with the car's layout. A simple check of the driving controls could be a life saver.
- If you're in your own car, you MUST have the full quota of European driving essentials.
- If you're in your own car, make sure you've got a GB sticker and you've fitted a headlamp beam adaptor.
- Stick to the main carriageways. In a right-hand drive car, you're sitting in the wrong place to spot potential hazards when you're driving on picturesque, winding roads. Ditch the view, stay safe.
- Plan your route and don't rely on Satnav to get you to your destination.
- If you don't speak the language of the country you're visiting, at least learn a few key phrases. In an accident, time is of the essence. Don't assume everyone speaks English.

NOTICE TO READERS

Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

what our customers say...

"My husband and I were struggling with money. Life was becoming difficult, we didn't want to ruin our lives, couldn't afford our home any longer. Clare said to her, stop it! I'll look, within days we had a representative visit us in person to talk about our options and someone was sent out to talk to us about renting our property back after we had sold it. It couldn't have been more straightforward, there was no pressure. We now have money each month and life is more relaxed. I would recommend you, anytime. Thank you!" Mrs A. Wolverhampton

"Ever since my husband died I had found it hard to settle in my home, I wanted to leave and had considered selling through an Estate Agent, but I knew this would take time. Suddenly I found a beautiful property, the "house of my dreams", and wanted to buy it fast. When I contacted you everything was explained in plain English, no jargon, and you guided me through the sale of my house and in to my new home. Thank you for being so straightforward." Mrs. Jones, Staffs.

"I wanted to say thank you for the help that you gave me. What a mess I was in, I was going to lose my home and me & my children would be out on the street, I was terrified. To have sent an independent date and I didn't believe you would help, but within days you had a new court date for us and you managed to hold off our landlord for long enough for me & my family to make alternative arrangements and move everything into our new home. Thank you, I just couldn't have done this alone. Christine, Stoke on Trent

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE FOR PUBLIC RIGHTS
AUDIT COMMISSION ACT 1998 (15 16)
ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT REGULATIONS, 2011
REGULATIONS 9, 10, 21, 22, 23

NOTICE IS GIVEN that from Monday 11 July 2011 to Monday 8 August 2011 between 10.00 a.m. and 4.00 p.m., any person interested may inspect, and make copies of the accounts of the above named District Council for the year ended 31 March, 2011 and all books, deeds, contracts, bills, vouchers and receipts relating thereto. The accounts and other documents will be available for inspection at the offices at which they are normally kept or otherwise by arrangement; application should be made initially to the Head of Financial Services, Civic Centre, Beecroft Road, Cannock, telephone number (01543) 462621.

NOTICE IS ALSO GIVEN that on or after Monday 8 August, 2011 at 10.00 a.m. until completion of the audit, the auditor, at the request of a local government elector for any area to which the accounts relate, will give the elector or his representative an opportunity under Section 15 and 16 of the Audit Commission Act, 1998 and Section 14(1) of the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2003, to question him about the accounts, and that any such elector or his representative may attend before the auditor and make objections as to any matter in respect of which the auditor could take action under the Act (namely an unlawful item of account, failure to bring a sum into account, or loss of deficiency caused by wilful misconduct) or could make a report in the public interest under Section 8 of the Act.

Questions may be received at the Civic Offices by arrangement with the auditor, Mr G. Patterson, Audit Commission, Opus House, Priestley Court, Stafford Technology Park, Beaconside, Stafford ST18 0LQ; telephone number 0844 798 6661 to whom requests for this purpose should be addressed. No objection may be made unless the auditor has previously received written notice of the proposed objections and its grounds. A copy of this notice must be sent to the Head of Financial Services at the address below.

R. Keen, Head of Financial Management
Civic Centre, PO Box 28, Beecroft Road, Cannock, Staffordshire, WS11 1BG

CLASSIFIED ADS
TOOLS OF THE TRADE

"The my classified section of the Express & Star has always proven to be a valuable source of customers for our business since we began. We have been advertising with the Express & Star for over 10 years and due to the response that we receive from our contract advertisements, we continually renew at the end of each year.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Classified Contract advertising with the Express & Star to anyone who is looking to promote their business."

Tennis club looks for new recruits

TENNIS

CANNOCK Tennis Club has served up a recruitment drive for new players.

The club, which plays at Chase Park in Church Lane, Hatherton, is looking for new members to join its ranks for either match or social tennis. The team plays in the Wilson Staffordshire Inter-Club Tennis League.

The doubles A team plays in Division 2 South while the B team plays in Division 6 South. Both need new players to boost club numbers.

An open singles tournament is being organised for Sunday July 24 in a bid to attract interest and offer players the opportunity to come along and see what the club has to offer.

Club spokesman Andy Richardson said: "We are a small but friendly club with just over 10 members at the moment. We are in need of new players who would like to play match tennis or alternatively would just like to come along and play socially.

"We are organising a tennis tournament on July 24 which we are opening up to other players who may be interested in joining the club to come along.

"If people are not interested in competitive tennis they can still join the club and just play on a fun, social level. The club is without a coach at the moment so we are unable to cater for juniors or beginners."

Joining fees are competitive with adult membership costing just £70 for the year.

The club has three astroturf courts and Chase Park offers changing and bar facilities.

Club night is a Monday evening and members regularly arrange to play either doubles or singles social games during the week and at a weekend.

For more information contact Andy Richardson on 07866 212026. Also visit www.cannocktennis.co.uk

Meanwhile, as tennis mania sweeps the nation, Lichfield Friary Lawn Tennis Club is holding another Open Day on Sunday (June 26), from 2-4pm at the Tamworth Road base.

There will be free coaching, demonstrations and the opportunity to simply have a go at the sport.

Head coach Paul Bayliss said: "Whether you are an adult, junior or a family we want people to have a go. The idea of this Open Day is for people who have been enjoying the tennis of the television to come along, in a non-pressure environment, and have some fun.

"It's free and there's nothing to lose. We'll have lots of activities going on and all the family can participate with prizes on offer.

Lichfield Friary Tennis Club has six artificial grass floodlit courts, ample free parking and a large clubhouse.

There are 14 mens, womens and mixed competitive teams and players of all standards are always welcome to join in.

To join Lichfield Friary Tennis Club please call Graham Hathaway on 01543 375175.

Producer of inspirational film makes pre-Dash visit

LICHFIELD DASH

ONE of the UK's most unique sporting events, the Salts Techstep Lichfield Cathedral Dash, has been confirmed for Saturday , July 16.

Now in its 13th year, there will be a special celebration for the 2011 event it marks the 30th anniversary of Chariots of Fire, the film that inspired the race around the clock.

The Dash, which started in 1998, is a 430 metre sprint around the Cathedral Close within the 58 seconds it takes for the noon bells to chime. It is a challenge of speed and ability, and of those who have taken part, fewer than 50 have actually achieved a sub-58 second time.

As a pre-cursor to the 2011 event, Chariots Of Fire producer Lord Puttnam will visit the city on Monday, July 11 to deliver the first Lichfield Festival Lecture at 7pm before the film will be screened outdoors in the Cathedral Gardens at 9.30pm. Tickets for either or both can be booked at www.lichfieldfestival.org

The Dash will again be supported by another Salts Techstep, a division of Birmingham-based Salt's Healthcare, who design and manufacture orthotic products.

Kevin Wilson, Founder of The Dash and a Director of organisers KP Events said: "This year's Dash will be fitting testament 30th anniversary of the film and I can't wait to see Lord Putnam and meet the man behind the film that inspired me."

Adrian Priest, Senior Product Manager at Salts Techstep said "We are delighted to be supporting this truly unique event."

The beneficiary of all proceeds will be St Giles Hospice in Whittington.

The programme for the day will start at 10am with the popular races for junior athletes as young as six with other running events such as junior and senior relays, a reintroduction of the elite Mile race for senior runners and many other event s too.

Confirmed Dash entries are the first two home in 2010, James Whitehouse of Birchfield Harriers James Whitehouse and Cannock and Stafford AC's Ashley Wickett. Invitations have also been extended to two previous dash winners and GB internationals in James Thie (Cardiff AC) a GB 1500m international and Dash winner in 2002 and another Cardiff AC GB international, Jimmy Watkins who won in Lichfield back in 2008.

All the latest information on dash news and events can be found at www.kpevents.net or by contacting Kevin Wilson on 07971 100973.

Pairs league vacancies

BOWLS

THERE are a couple of vacancies in Division Three of the popular Briggs Equipment UK indoor pairs bowling league this winter.

The league is played at Cannock Chase Leisure Centre under British Crown Green Bowling rules. Games are played on Sunday afternoons.

Total prize money is £900. Any pair interested in joining on first come first served basis contact Mel Evans on 07885 190968 as soon as possible. The season begins on November 6 and runs until February 19.

Football's not the only winner as tournament is most successful yet

MORE than 4,000 people attended a two-day junior football tournament – but it wasn't just the game that was the winner.

The eighth annual Hawkins FC 7-a-side tournament on June 18/19 attracted 96 teams from Staffordshire, the West Midlands and Shropshire, but also raised awareness of and cash for community projects.

The event supported the 3 MERCIAN (Staffords) in Afghanistan and the Link for Life Project, which focuses on young people in Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley with their equivalents in South Africa.

The Mercian regiment even brought along a giant inflatable obstacle course for youngsters to enjoy.

On the field, there were 24 under-7s and under-8s teams playing in the non-competitive section, with a further 72 teams competing from the under-9s through to the u-14s.

A club spokesman said: "Despite three downpours on the Saturday we managed to get all the games completed on time, there ware plenty of close games with several going into extra time and the dreaded penalties."

Saturday's winners were: Under 10s: Brownhills Community, runners-up FC Premier (Rangers); under 12 Ulverley Hawks (Whites), runners-up Brewood Juniors; under 14s: Hawkins Sports (Falcons), runners-up Brazilian Soccer School.

The winning teams on the Sunday were: Under-9s Kewford Eagles (East), runners-up Brewood Juniors (Eagles); under-11s Hopton Rovers, runners-up Sporting FC; under-13 Sporting Continental, runners-up FC Bloxwich Lions

All the under-7s and under-8s teams were presented with medals for taking part, while all the other winners and runners-up were handed medals and cups by the Andy Evans, managing director of EDS Couriers.

Club chairman Chris Burton would like to thank the two main sponsors, EDS Couriers and Palletforce Burton on Trent for supporting the event as well as all the managers, parents and players who gave up their weekend to make the tournament the most successful yet.

To make a donation to the 'Heroes in Afghanistan' contact Chris or Lesley Burton on 01922 413739

Football kits, boots or balls can be dropped of at EDS Couriers, off Delta Way, Bridgtown where they will be ensured to reach their destination in South Africa.

Yet more silverware for junior Pitmen

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

HEDNESFORD Town u-11s lifted another piece of silverware when they were crowned Oakengates summer tournament champions.

Again they remained unbeaten on the day and cruised to their fourth trophy of a remarkable season.

Next season the Junior Pitmen are entering the Midland Junior Premier League after winning the double for the past two years.

❑ ❑ ❑

HEDNESFORD Town u-13s are looking for players for 2011/2012 season. Ring Jason on 07974101537.

❑ ❑ ❑

AT THE Uttoxeter Rotary Club, Hednesford Town Harriers under-11s were defeated on penalties by Abbots Bromley.

Hednesford battled through to the final, picking up points in every game along the way. With the golden goal rule still unable to settle the outcome of the final, it came down to spot-kicks.

❑ ❑ ❑

HEDNESFORD United u-11 Girls travelled to Blackpool for a weekend tournament against the best of the best in the north. Due to last minute unforeseen changes to the team, the girls played the 7 a-side tournament with just five players.

They went on to win two of their group games and amazed the opposition as to the standard of play from the South Staffs Young Women's League side.

The girls scored eight goals between them and progressed to the semi-finals where they lost on penalties. After a great season finishing third in the league, the team is now looking to recruit experienced players across all out-field positions as they step up to nine a-side next season. To join the FA Charter Standard club, call Dave on 07919 105630.

❑ ❑ ❑

A FANTASTIC day saw Burntwood Dragons u-11s Reds and a joint team from both u-11 go all the way to meet each other in the final of the club-hosted tournament.

With nothing to split the teams after "Golden Goal" extra time it was the joint team which edged it after countless penalties.

❑ ❑ ❑

CHASETOWN Scholars u-11s (current school Year 6) are looking to strengthen their squad in preparation for next season. Anyone interested should call Steve Molineux on 07818 573915 or email stemol54@aol.com

❑ ❑ ❑

BRERETON Town u-10s have just finished a superb, finishing second in the league and missing out top spot by just one point.

The club is now looking for players to add to its squad in readiness for 11-a-side (current school Year 5).

Call Steve Newton on 07894762166.

Rugby training gets under way

PRE-SEASON training for Rugeley Rugby Club begins this weekend.

Sessions get under way on Saturday (June 25) from 1.30 to 2.30pm at St Augustine's Field. Richard Siveter of Coventry R.F.C. will be in attendance to co-ordinate the training session.

All are welcome.

Medal haul at national competition

KARATE

A KARATE club came away with a haul of medals after entering a national martial art tournament.

Elite Shotokan Club entered the Staffordshire international Karate Tournament last month at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre in Saredon Road and faced opponents from across England and Ireland.

The club, from Essington. took 16 medals with many of the students who entered relatively inexperienced on the competition circuit but came out among the top performing clubs on the day. The medal winners were:

Richard Hill, aged 26, from Great Wyrley who won the men's senior kata and the overall kata becoming grand champion 2011

Fiona Plater, 19 from Cannock won the female senior kata and overall kata to become female grand champion 2011

Josh Devey, 12 from Great Wyrley got bronze in kata

Jack Harris, 11 from Great Wyrley won silver in kata and gold in fighting

John Hill, 53 won the 40 plus category to come away with a gold medal

Mike Carr, 26 from Cannock, won bronze in kata

Sam Evans, 26, from Cheslyn Hay got bronze in kata

Annabelle Evans, six, from Essington won bronze in kata

Nici Nixon, 12, from Cheslyn Hay won bronze in fighting

James Alton, 16 from Cheslyn Hay won silver in fighting

Owen Cartridge, 13, from Essington won bronze in fighting.

Ben Williams, nine, from Essington won bronze in fighting

Paige Mccaughtrie, nine, won bronze in kata

Chief instructor David Hill, said: "We have a very consistent standard right across the club. Across all ages, genders and grades we have won medals in both Kata and Fighting.

"The elite students have a really good balance of traditional karate and sport karate.

"I am very pleased with all the students who took part as well as medal winners there were many of my students who just finished outside the medals in 4th and 5th placings.

"The club did absolutely fantastic. We have recently joined the English Karate Federation and the standard of karate athletes is much higher than we have been used to. However, my students have really excelled and have shown a lot of desire to want to compete against some of the very best in the UK.

"I am pleased to say we are more than holding our own. The club has been running for just five years now and what started with just three students has grown into over 30."

Richard Hill and Fiona Plater also competed at the UK United styles open competition at Stourbridge on the May 22 and did exceptionally well against some very strong teams which included the official England and Wales teams and the British Army Karate Team.

Richard came away with a 2nd in kata and Fiona who had came away with 2nd in kata and 2nd in fighting narrowly missing out in both finals.

Both of these students will be training extremely hard over the summer period to be ready for England selections in September.

Anyone interested in joining the club, which trains throughout the summer, should contact David on 07890 646 921. Training is twice weekly at Essington Community centre.

Rain fails to put a dampener on annual golf day

OCCASIONAL rain showers did not dampen a fine day's entertainment at Chasetown FC's annual Golf Day at Patshull Park Golf Club last Wednesday (June 15).

A total of 18 teams took part in the annual Stableford team competition. These included a number of current and former Chasetown players plus two teams from the Aston Villa Former Players Association which included Neil Rioch, Steve Staunton and Mark Kinsella.

The spoils of victory went to Team GPM Decor with a total of 128 points. Team members Gary Murphy, Gary Cribb, Rick Baker and Gary Smith played off handicaps ranging from 10 to 19. Smith also took the award for the longest drive on the 14th hole.

Keith Hesketh of the Uxbridge Arms team scooped the award for getting his ball nearest the pin on the second green, while Neil Williams (Team Grangemoor) and Paul Ditchfield (Uxbridge Arms) were the top overall scorers on 43 apiece, the latter taking the trophy due to better scoring on the back nine holes.

For the second year running Jack Burrell took the "wooden spoon" scoring just seven points, just behind current Chasetown squad member Matty Cohen who scored nine.

Cohen also managed to send his opening tee shot of the day onto the clubhouse roof and dislodged a few tiles in the process, and he was presented with one of the roof tiles at the evening dinner as a memento.

The day was rounded off with entertainment from comedian Nipper Thomas, and a hugely successful day was concluded and raised over £800 for Chasetown FC.

Results: GPM Decor 128; Uxbridge Arms 127; Electracare 126; MRB Financial; 124; Bradford Accountants 123; Team Dennis 123; Grangemoor 115; Aston Villa Old Boys 1 115; Team Garbett 111; Team Heafield 110; Team Harris 110; Team Bullock 108; Coverscope 107; Aston Villa Old Boys 2 103; Black Country Boys 102; Tower Gate Finance 101; Chasetown FC 94; CBSILC 85.

On the field, Chasetown FC ladies battled their way to the final of the Wyrley Juniors tournament. After a hard fought game between two well matched teams Chasetown went down 1-0 to Wednesfield.

Before the goal Chasetown had shots from Beth Woollaston and Sophie Aldridge cleared off the line but Chasetown Ladies left the field with their heads held high. Other squad members were at the same time running in the Race for Life for Cancer Research.

Chasetown Ladies are looking to add to their squad for next year at u-16 in the cwgfl premier division. Training starts this week.

Chloe Wilde, 800m county champion for the under-13 age group

Chloe follows in her mother's footsteps

ATHLETICS

A RUGELEY school pupil has quite literally followed in her mother's footsteps after winning a county sports title.

Hagley Park Sports College athlete Chloe Wilde, aged 11, recently became the under 13s 800 metre county champion at the Staffordshire AAA Championships in Stoke-on-Trent.

And her mum Jayne had won exactly the same 800m title 28 years ago when she was a youngster at Aelfgar School in Taylors Lane.

Chloe won the much-coveted gold medal after just two months of training as a middle distance runner, under the watchful eye of coach Bob Hughes at Cannock & Stafford Athletic Club.

As well as winning the 800 metres, Chloe also went on to win silver in the 200m later that day with a personal best time.

And on top of all that Chloe is an accomplished gymnast, having won numerous awards including an intermediate silver medal in the Cannock and District Gymnastics Competition in March this year.

Bright

A Hagley Park spokesman said: "The future is looking extremely bright for Chloe as she continues to concentrate on being the best she can be in her chosen field which has already reaped great rewards.

"We are sure that Chloe will continue to go from strength to strength in whatever she chooses to do."

Seventh win on trot puts first XI clear

CRICKET

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (202) BEAT SWINDON (186) BY 16 RUNS

PENKRIDGE went 17 points clear at the top of Division 1 on Saturday (June 18) as they recorded their seventh victory in succession against previous leaders Swindon.

In an enthralling encounter at Pillaton, the visitors won the toss and put Penkridge in.

Opener Alex Watson with a fine 67 from 71 balls led the charge, but wickets tumbled around him to leave Penkridge teetering on 138-8. Laeq Chishti (69) and Gary Pope (15) put on an invaluable 62-run partnership for the ninth wicket as the home team were bowled out for 202, with Todd Henderson the pick of the visitors' attack taking 4-49.

Henderson then took charge with the bat striking an impressive 89 from just 64 balls, but with his wicket, the Swindon reply faltered as Faisal Nadeem claiming 3-61. Chishti completed a fine all round game with his first five-wicket haul for the club (5-54), cleaning up the tail as Swindon were bowled out for 186 in the 37th over, handing Penkridge a maximum 24 points.

PENKRIDGE 2NDS (286-3) BEAT SWINDON (282) BY SEVEN WICKETS

The 2nd XI triumphed in a high scoring affair against the same opposition.

Sixteen year old Kieran Smith took the bowling plaudits claiming his first five wicket return for the club (5-67), but his efforts could not prevent Swindon amassing 282-5 from their 50 overs thanks to 67 from James Smith and 80 from Chris Cork.

Makeshift opener Jon Price stepped up to the mark crashing 106 from 97 balls to take the attack to Swindon, hitting 12 4s and four 6s. His opening partner Simon Parnaby scored 54 in super quick time, and then Price shared in a match winning stand of 139 with Liam Kettle (58 not out), before skipper Rob Lawrence (38 not out) came in and blasted the remaining runs required for victory in just the 38th over.

PENKRIDGE 3RDS (108-9) DREW WITH CODSALL (163-5)

Division 3 leaders Codsall claimed a winning draw.

After batting first, they amassed 163-5 from 50 overs with George Ashbridge (57) and Sean Dearn (49) the main contributors.

Steve Jones (34) was the only Penkridge batsman to get to grips with the Codsall attack and Penkridge finally managed to cling on for a draw, finishing on 108-9, with Lee Allen (4-27) and Max Ashbridge (3-19) tormentors in chief.

Opener Alex Watson led the charge with 67 off 71 balls

Patterson exits as boss makes Shaw of signing

HEDNESFORD Town have announced their first signing of the summer with the capture of 27- year old Chris Shaw from Conference North outfit Eastwood Town.

The former Grantham defender can operate at either left-back or centre half and played more than 150 games for The Badgers scoring an impressive 24 goals.

Pitmen manager Rob Smith was delighted to unveil the signing and sees Shaw as a vital part of his squad for the coming Evo-Stik Northern League campaign,

"I felt that after last season's disappointment in the play-offs the squad needed some experienced heads to help develop our ever-improving young players and

HEDNESFORD TOWN FC

Chris fitted the bill. He is strong in the tackle, left-footed, and will give some competition on the dead-ball situations with Darren Campion."

Smith acknowledged that Shaw's signing was seen as a replacement for former club captain Liam Francis, who made the move along the A5 to Conference team Tamworth last week.

"Liam was solid for us last season and an important player in the dressing room, I would have loved to have seen Liam stay with us but Tamworth are two leagues higher and he goes with our blessing. Now we must look forward and the signing of Chris Shaw signals our ambitions for the season ahead."

This week also saw the departure of striker, Kyle Patterson, another pivotal player in the Pitmen's charge to the play-offs. He has opted to join his former skipper at The Lamb.

Assistant boss Larry Chambers admitted the club was disappointed to see one of their top performers leave but is happy that himself, Smith and the chairman Steve Price, did everything they could to persuade the former LA Galaxy player to stay.

"We made Kyle a very good offer but unfortunately for us he has decided to move up the pyramid into the Conference.

"The chairman was generous in allowing our budget to be stretched to keep such a high-quality player but we can now use some of that money to look for further improvements in our squad; as has been proved with the recent acquisition of Chris Shaw."

Edwards claims two wickets on debut

CANNOCK 3RDS (241-7) BEAT RUSHALL 3RDS (129) BY 112 RUNS

CANNOCK hosted Rushall as their Staffs Club Championship season reached the halfway mark and claimed a convincing victory.

After deciding to bat, the Cannock batsmen were quickly into their stride with Dave Chapman (35) leading the way. The introduction of Micklewright and R Cooke slowed the scoring until Connor Shingler (47) and Jag Chahal (20) kept the scoreboard moving.

Kev Ryan (39 no) and Tom Bull (33 quickened the pace as Cannock closed on 241-7.

A half century opening partnership saw Rushall's reply start well and at the half way stage the score was 75-1. After drinks, wickets began to fall. Aaron Wilkes put Cannock in charge with a spell of 4-16 before Wood returned to mop up the tail and return with 5-31 as Cannock recorded league win number five.

CANNOCK U-15 (117-3) BEAT OLD WULFS (89- 7) BY 28 RUNS

Cannock chose to bat and after the setback of an early wicket, a partnership of 69 between Dan Wood (40) and Connor Shingler put the innings back on track.

Shingler retired after reaching 50 and a final flourish by James Caswell and Elliott Horton, both scoring eight not out, saw Cannock close on 117-3. The Old Wulfs reply saw an early wicket followed by a half century partnership but once that stand was broken Cannock took control and the innings ended with under-13 Oliver Edwards taking two wickets on his debut.

Welcome to Leekes...

Tony Squires
Bilston Store Manager

If you don't know us already, we'd like to introduce ourselves

As the UK's largest independent department store, we have so much to offer for every room in your home, it's not always easy to know what to call ourselves. A furniture retailer? A kitchen specialist? How about a bathroom store? Well we're all of these and a lot more besides – so we like to think 'home experts' sums us up best of all.

We've been serving our customers in Wales and the West for over 100 years and with the completion of our newly refurbished Great Bridge Road store in Bilston, we're delighted that we can extend that know-how, range and choice to customers in the West Midlands.

The biggest range and the best brands

With over 40 different kitchens, more than 100 bathrooms and showers to choose from, 120 ceiling light fittings, hundreds of sofas, beds, dining sets, a whole host of home accessories and much, much more – it's easy to see why we're the most popular choice for all things 'home'.

You'll find famous names including G Plan, Joseph Joseph, Rest Assured, Bedeck, Sony, as well as our own brand, CASA, exclusive to Leekes. Whatever you choose, our promise to you remains the same now as it did all those years ago when James Henry Leeke opened his first shop - quality products sold at competitive prices, complete with excellent customer service.
